Ford as Diplomat
The Value of Enemies
No More Handshaking?
Governor Smith's Veto

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

HENRY FORD tells British reporters "the last time I was in England I bought a Rolls Royce, and when I came home I took it home with me." Much delight among proud Britons. Ford, diplomat, did not add that he sent his son Edsel buy every make of car in the world, having a special department to examine such cars, test them, admit them to every possible kind of abuse, to discover any good new ideas there.

Edsel Ford lately was racing around in a German Mercedes car, built to go 120 miles an hour.

THE greatest lawyers, capitalists, and politicians were proud to escort the late Chauncey M. Depew to his grave. The nation wishes him happiness in the next world, as he knew it in this.

NOBODY went to the grave of Jean Jacques Rosseau when he was buried on the Isle des Pins.

Napoleon, looking at that lonely grave, said that if there had been no Jean Jacques Rosseau there would have been no Napoleon, and perhaps the world have been just as well for the world if neither had lived. To have one pallbearer at your funeral, make only friends. To be remembered, make well chosen enemies.

THE fascisti propose to abolish handshaking for health reasons. No use exchanging microbes every time two men meet.

Indiscriminate handshaking by men and kissing by women might be eliminated on common sense grounds also.

HANDSHAKING originated when a man held out his hand to show it had no knife. That's gone by. The thing is done more neatly now with the aid of lawyers.

George Washington did not believe in handshaking and stood at receptions with his hands behind his back and bowed.

REV. GEORGE G. JEFFRIES baptized 1,000 in Albert hall, London, with 20,000 looking on. The baptized men wore white flannels the women white nightgowns, and it was no simple old-fashioned baptizing.

Flashlights and floodlights, limelight and loud speakers gave "class" to the event. What our century lacks in simple faith we make up for with megaphones.

GOVERNOR SMITH uses his veto with common sense. Kind-hearted people passed a law forbidding the clipping of dogs' ears. "Governor Smith won't veto that kind of a law," said they. But he did veto it.

Dogs fight, ears clipped or unclipped. Stopping fighting dogs cars save them trouble and pain. If you were a dog you would have the sensitive outer part of your ears clipped once for all, rather than have them bitten a hundred times.

NUREMBERG and all Germany celebrates with enthusiasm the 400th anniversary of Albrecht Duerer's death. Duerer never painted "A Nude Lady Descending a Staircase," looking like a cubehouse. But his art will outlive the rush of this and the last century. He worked quickly, as genius usually does. He went out to the emperor, approaching his city, took one look at his face, turned back and had an excellent portrait finished when the emperor arrived.

HENRY KEENAH of Jersey City speculates in horses, is 97 years old and says: "To live 100 years, drink a little, smoke a little and don't sit down too much." A simple remedy, but in these bootleg days one item must be eliminated. No man using bootleg liquor habitually will live to be 100.

THREE MEN IN BREMEN CRAFT; KOEHL PILOT

Almost Perfect Take-Off Made from Baldonnel Airfield

BARON IS ABOARD

Weather Conditions on This Side Not Particularly Bright, Is Claim

By International News Service

Twenty-six transatlantic passenger steamers line the path which the silver gray German monoplane, Bremen, has taken in its projected flight from Baldonnel Field, near Dublin, to Mitchel Field, N. Y., but none o fthem up to shortly before noon had reported sighting the plane. Only a few of these liners, however, were close enough to the European coast to have sighted the Bremen so soon.

The first word from Bremen, after it hopped off at 5:38 a. m. today (12:38 a. m. New York time) with Capt. Herman Koehl, Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice and Baron Ehrenfried Von Huenefeld aboard, came in the form of a Central News dispatch from Galway which said that the plane passed over Galway, on the west coast of Ireland at 7:05 a. m. (2:05 a. m. New York time). The plane was flying strongly in a northwesterly direction. Then at 7:25 a. m. civil guards on Aran Island, at the entrance to the bay of Galway, reported sighting the plane.

Weather conditions were reported satisfactory as far as mid-atlantic but there were indications that, after that point is reached, the fliers may run into difficulties. Dr. James H. Kimball of the New York Weather Bureau said that strong winds, severe cold and sleet along the North Atlantic coast await the fliers. He said that easterly winds are blowing over Halifax at the rate of 32 miles an hour and that if the Bremen kept up her anticipated schedule she should arrive at Cape Grace, just in time to meet a storm which is moving northward from Cape Cod.

Dublin, April 12—Determined to be the first to span the Atlantic Ocean in a westward flight, Capt. Hermann Koehl, Commandant James E. Fitzmaurice and Baron Ehrenfried Von Huenefeld hopped off from Baldonnel Airfield for America in the Junkers monoplane Bremen at 5:38 a. m. today.

Captain Koehl handled the "joystick" at the take-off. Commandant Fitzmaurice, chief of the Irish Free State Air Force, who was to act as relief pilot, sat next to him. Von Huenefeld went along as observer.

While a crowd of several hundred soldiers on the field cheered, the heavily-loaded plane lifted gracefully from the field and headed westward.

President Cosgrave of the Irish Free State shook hands with them before they hopped off.

After weeks of reports of miserable weather the fliers were greatly elated last night when they learned that conditions as far west as the mid-Atlantic were perfect for a transatlantic flight

Take Northern Route

At dawn, Koehl and his companions came on the field smiling broadly and showing little nervousness. Von Huenefeld was happy as a youngster and pointed to the sun breaking through the clouds.

The fliers will take the northern "Great Circle" route usually used by transatlantic fliers.

If they maintain the schedule they have set for themselves the fliers should pass Newfoundland early tomorrow

SAVES GIRL

Deputy Sheriff, Hero After Jumping from Moving Car

Canton, April 12—Deputy Sheriff Al Ball of Stark County, was hailed as a hero today for the part he played in rescuing Miss Florence Wagner, 24, from possible death near Greentown, between Canton and Akron last night.

Ball, with another deputy, Phil Hibaugh, was making a tour of his territory in an auto, when he sighted the body of Miss Wagner, who is believed to have been struck by a hit-skip motorist, lying partly on the tracks of the N. O. P. Traction Lines, her head facing the highway. The girl was unconscious.

Ball leaped from his machine, said to have been travelling about 25 miles an hour, and dragged the girl to safety as an interurban car approached. Miss Wagner is expected to recover from her injuries. A search is being made for the driver of the machine which struck her.

FOES' DEFEAT AID TO LOWDEN

See Former Illinois Governor Governor as Real Barrier in Hoover's Path

Washington, April 12—The practical politicians of Washington, who cannily wait until the smoke of an election battle is all cleared away before attempting analysis of the results, were agreed today on these conclusions out of the turbulent Illinois primary:

The presidential candidacy of Ex-Gov. Frank O. Lowden has been enormously accelerated by the crushing defeat of his foes in the state, and he now appears a real and very formidable barrier in the road of Herbert Hoover.

The defeat suffered by the Thompson delegates on their "Draft Coolidge" plea drives still another nail in the coffin of that ambitious scheme.

Lowden now has more actual and instructed delegates to the Kansas City convention than Hoover, although this fact admittedly can not be taken too seriously at this time because of the great stretch of Hoover territory still to act. Still, the fact remains that Lowden has today, two months from the date on which the Republicans assemble at Kansas City, approximately 167 votes definitely committed to his candidacy.

These instructed and pledged are scattered through Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Carolina and Wisconsin.

DEFENSE BALKED IN K. K. K. DAMAGE SUIT

Banished Members Succeed in Getting Sensational Testimony into Records

Pittsburgh, April 12—The Ku Klux Klan opened its case against five banished members of the order from whom it seeks $500,000 damages in Federal Court shortly before noon today, after the defense, balked at almost every turn, succeeded in reading into the evidence parts of the sensational deposition of D. C. Stephenson, former Indiana Klan leader.

Judge W. H. S. Thomson overruled a motion by J. H. Connaughton that the testimony of Klan terrorism read into the records the first three days of the trial be thrown out. The judge previously dismissed the countersuit of the banished members in which the latter sought to throw the Klan into receivership in this state.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Durham, N. C., April 12—Charged with the murder of Mrs. Annie Terry, 45-year-old Durham widow, which has baffled authorities of three North Carolina counties for more than two weeks, W. H. Lawrence, Durham contractor, was arrested here early today.

MOSES APOLOGIZES

Senate Crowded As Solon Retracts Couzens Attack

WASHINGTON, April 12—Under dramatic circumstances, Senator George H. Moses, Republican of New Hampshire, this afternoon publicly apologized before a crowded Senate to Senator James E. Couzens, Republican of Michigan, for ascribing the latter's fight for Treasury reforms to a "personal feud" between the Michigan senator and Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon.

TESTIFY FALL SHUT OUT OIL COMPANIES

Three Heads of Concerns and Senator Witnesses in Teapot Dome Trial

Washington, April 12 — Evidence purporting to show that Ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall made a "shut-out" proposition of leasing the Teapot Dome Naval Oil Reserve to Harry F. Sinclair, was introduced by the government today at Sinclair's criminal conspiracy trial.

Amos L. Beaty, former president of the Texas Co. was put on the stand by the government. He said that in March, 1922, a month before the Sinclair lease was signed, he went to Fall with an offer for the naval reserve.

"Fall told me," Beaty testified, "that he had an offer from Sinclair that was satisfactory."

The Texas company's capitalization, Beaty said, was $104,500,000.

Helms Takes Stand

Beaty said Fall had told him he would give preference to the company that acquired title to certain placer mining claims then existant on the Dome. Sinclair already had acquired these titles and turned the quit-claims over to the government.

Beaty learned of the Sinclair lease a week after it was signed.

Under cross-examination Beaty admitted the Texas Co. would not have considered a lease embodying construction of a 1,000-mile pipe line and seaboard storage tanks for the Navy such as Sinclair signed.

Another oil man who fared similarly followed Beaty on the stand. He was Birch Helms, of the Texas-Pacific Oil Co.

Helms made the rounds of Washington in the spring of 1922 seeking a lease on Teapot Dome, he said.

Signed Lease April 7

"I was referred to Secretary Fall," Helms declared. "I saw him about the

Prince of Wales Develops Aerobatic Technic in Latest Spill

LONDON, April 12—The Prince of Wales suffered another acrobatic fall from his horse today, this being the twenty-ninth recorded time that he has been thrown. The Prince was riding his favorite horse, De Gomme, in the West Norfolk point-to-point races at Nector when the accident took place. The Prince turned a complete somersault in the air, but was not injured.

27 KILLED IN MUSSOLINI PLOT

Bomb Exploded as King Is Due To Arrive at Fair; Another in Duce's Path

BULLETIN

Milan, Italy, April 12—Twenty-seven persons were killed and wounded here today when assassins who plotted to kill King Victor Emanuel exploded a bomb in the crowded Julius Caesar Square.

Paris, April 12—Alleged plots to assassinate King Victor Emanuel and Premier Mussolini of Italy, the former resulting in a bomb outrage in Milan which cost the lives of 14 persons were reported from Milan and Berne today.

A bomb was exploded in Place Julius Caesar, Milan, at 10 o'clock this morning just before the arrival of King Victor Emanuel to inaugurate a trade fair. Fourteen persons were killed and 40 were wounded.

At the same time a dispatch from Berne reported that a bomb was found upon the railway tracks near Como, Italy, just before a train carrying Premier Mussolini was due to pass.

Mussolini was returning to Rome. A man who was holding a detonator wire was arrested. This bomb was discovered several days ago, it is understood, as Mussolini was in Rome yesterday where he held an interview with S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparation payments under the Dawes plan.

The perpetrators of the bomb outrage in Milan acted with the utmost boldness. The streets through which the Italian king was to pass were lined with soldiers and police, but the bomber or bombers were able to smuggle the infernal machine into the closely packed square where it exploded.

SENATE MAY ENACT FARM BILL TODAY

Only One Major Point Stands in Way of Final Vote

Washington, April 12—Only one major point, involving whether the power to select advisory councils shall be lodged in President Coolidge or in the proposed Federal Farm Board, stood in the way today of a final vote in the Senate on the new McNary-Haugen farm relief bill.

Farm bloc leaders predicted the bill would be enacted before nightfall by a big majority and sent to the House tomorrow. On the only test vote taken so far, a combination of western and southern senators adopted a friendly amendment by a vote of 42 to 30. It indicated the final vote would show the bill commands less than the two-thirds majority required to enact it over a presidential veto.

Friendly amendments smoothed away nearly all of the southern opposition to the bill and insured its enactment by the Senate.

BERGER INTRODUCES NEW ANTI-LYNCHING BILL

Washington, April 12—A federal anti-lynching law which would not only send members of mobs to prison but also police officials who deliberately fail to prevent lynchings was proposed in a bill introduced in the House today by Rep. Victor Berger, Socialist of Wisconsin.

Berger's bill would make the penalty for taking part in the formation of a lynching mob five years in prison with a $5,000 fine, with twice the penalty for delinquent officials.

BOY TELLS OF STEALING CARS FOR JOYRIDES

Caught Last Night While Attempting To Start Ford Sedan

Caught in the act of attempting to start a Ford sedan belonging to Benjamin Snyder, 311 Blaine-av, James Murphy, 16, Wilson av, admitted to the police last night that he had taken 10 or 12 cars within the past several weeks which he had abandoned after taking a ride. Officers reported today.

The escapade that resulted in the terminating of his joyriding career, took place on W. Center-st at 9:30 last night when he was caught by H. E. Bindley, local representative of the National Detective Bureau, in the act of attempting to start the engine of the Snyder car. A 32-calibre revolver, a flash-light, pliers and a number of skeleton keys, were found in his possession, when taken to police headquarters.

He made no resistance when arrested and readily told of his joyriding experiences, which included rides in 10 or 12 cars, he wasn't just sure which. Included in his experiences, he told police, was the taking of a stolen car which he found parked on Olney-ave and in which he had taken several rides.

Columbus Car

The stolen car to which he referred was the Chevrolet coach, stolen at Columbus, Sunday, and which was found by the police on Olney-av, Tuesday night. Murphy told the police he found the car parked on Olney-av, Sunday night, that he "borrowed" it and after riding all evening parked it on E. George-st.

On Monday, feeling the urge to take another ride and finding the car still parked on George-st, he again appropriated it for his own use and after riding all evening left it on Olney-av where he had found it on Sunday night and where it was picked up by the police. The car is being held at police headquarters awaiting word from Columbus.

INJURED YOUTH IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Little Hope Held for Recovery of Robert Templeton, Auto Crash Victim

A slight improvement in the condition of Robert Templeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Templeton, former residents of this city, who received a fractured skull in an automobile accident at Akron, Sunday night, was reported from the Akron hospital in a telephone message to the R. D. Mezger home at 807 S. Prospect-st, late last night.

Young Templeton, it was stated at the hospital, had partly regained consciousness and yesterday afternoon was able to recognize his mother. Physician, however, are holding out but little hope for his recovery.

Before moving to Akron about a year ago, the Templetons resided on S. Prospect-st, the elder Templeton being employed as superintendent at the Marion County Lumber company. Young Templeton was a student at Harding High School.

ST. MARYS ENACTS NEW CITY GAS ORDINANCE

St. Marys April 12—Following enactment of a new gas ordinance, with a lower rate schedule, by the City Council, officials of the West Ohio Gas Co. today had one month in which to accept or appeal the ordinance to the State Utilities Commission.

The new ordinance sets the following rate: 90 cents for the first 1,000 feet; 80 cents per thousand for the next 5,000 feet; 75 for the next 6,000; and 75 per thousand for all in excess of 10,000 cubic feet.

SHIP FIGHTS STORM

Liner Homeric Arrives in New York 24 Hours Late

NEW YORK, April 12—Battered by seas of hurricane force, the liner Homeric arrived today 24 hours late.

The waves were 40 feet high, from trough to crest, and broke over the whole vessel, Capt. W. S. Parker said.

The Homeric's speed was reduced to seven knots during the worst stage of the storm.

WILLIS FORCES OF DISTRICT TO BE FOR DAWES

Warner Outlines Program for Final Campaign Against Hoover

Republican organization leaders of the Eighth Ohio congressional district who pledged support originally to the presidential candidacy of Senator Frank B. Willis are still solidly aligned in the campaign to elect their slate of delegates and alternates in the presidential preference primary on April 24.

If successful, their delegates to the national convention are expected to vote for Charles G. Dawes for the presidential nomination.

This announcement is based on information coming today from Fred W. Warner, chairman of the state Republican central committee, who was from the beginning one of the leading supporters of the Willis candidacy.

There are six counties in the Eighth district, including Marion County.

Seek Substitute

Death having claimed Senator Willis in tragic fashion as he approached the zenith of his political career, his supporters now seek a substitute who they believe will be best fitted to carry the Republican banner in the coming presidential contest, Dawes, so Warner indicated, has been selected as the one best qualified for the distinction.

At the same time, the Republican chairman makes it clear that the forces with which he is associated as a leader have the defeat of Hoover in mind as one of the primary objects of the campaign. Warner and those aligned with him do not regard Hoover as a representative Republican.

Assignment of prominent speakers to meetings expected to be held in counties throughout the district during the closing days of the campaign preceding the presidential primary will probably be completed within the next few days, Warner said. He indicated that an announcement of the campaign plan might be forthcoming today.

It is expected that Marion will be included in the schedule of meetings. The purpose of the campaign will be to urge Republican voters to cast their bal-

OHIO GAS TAX WILL BRING IN 25 MILLION

Nearly Three Million Dollars Collected During January and Feburary

Columbus, April 12—That Ohio's gasoline tax law will produce a total revenue this year of approximately $25,000,000 was predicted today by members of the State Tax Commission. All of this revenue, the statutes decree, shall be spent for highway construction, maintenance and repair with the exception of a maximum amount of $1,000,000 which may be expended for eliminating grade crossings.

The net revenue from the gasoline tax last year totaled $10,010,480, compared with $13,318,051 in 1926 and $8,980,950 during the approximately 8½ months the law was in effect in 1925.

The law exacting a tax of two cents per gallon of motor vehicle fuel, became effective on April 18, 1923. The last state legislature increased the tax to three cents and the law, as amended, became operative on May 25, last year.

Records of the State Tax Commission, which supervises collection of this tax, places that gross gasoline tax receipts last January at $1,465,906.56 and those of February at $1,480,332.63. Figures for last month it was stated, are not yet available.

THEATER HEAD'S TRIAL ENDS IN DISAGREEMENT

Jury Dismissed; Report Vote Stood Seven to Five for Acquittal

NEXT STEP DISCUSSED

Future Action Uncertain, Prosecutor Says; Sharpless To Continue Shows

Judge George B. Scofield of the Common Pleas Court and Prosecuting Attorney Frank Wiedemann in a conference this morning failed to reach any decision on the next step to be taken in the Edward Sharpless Sunday motion picture case.

The jury before which the case was heard yesterday failed to reach an agreement after deliberating for two hours and 50 minutes and was dismissed by Judge Scofield.

Prosecuting Attorney Wiedemann said that it was not likely that any definite decision as to future procedure in the case would be reached today.

There are four courses that may be followed in future in regard to the case. The case heard yesterday may be tried again at a later date before a new jury. Sharpless may again be indicted by the grand jury. The present indictments may be nolled or the case may be ignored. Wiedemann was unable to make any statement today as to what the future course would be.

Two More Arrests

Sharpless has been arrested twice since the indictments on which he was tried yesterday were returned by the grand jury. On each arrest he waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury in Municipal Court. Those charges will come before the next session of the Grand Jury.

According to defense attorneys the final vote of the jury, taken shortly before 9:30 o'clock was seven to five for acquittal. At one time during the deliberations the vote had been nine to three for acquittal, it is reported.

Sharpless and his attorneys, Grant E. Mouser, and J. Malcolm Stralton, this morning expressed their satisfaction with the results of the trial, considering it a point in their favor.

The jury left the courtroom at 20 minutes to 2 o'clock and 45 minutes

REED INDORSEMENT STARTS DISCUSSION

Introduction by Taggart May Give Democrat Vote of Indiana Delegates

Indianapolis, April 12 — Cryptic words of indorsement uttered by Thomas Taggart, veteran leader of Indiana Democrats in introducing United States Senator James R. Reed of Missouri to a crowd of 3,500 persons here last night were the topic of political conversation here today.

"It may be that—now of course we're all for Evans Woollen, but we'll have a good man to rely on," were the words of Taggart, which many persons believed indicated that the Missourian would be considered for the vote of Indiana's delegation, if the presidential boom for Woollen, the favorite son candidate, is unsuccessful.

Will Hays, former Republican national chairman, was a special target for the fiery address of Senator Reed. After summarizing the connection of Hays with the Teapot Dome oil scandal, Reed said:

"I propose the motion picture industry remove Will Hays and put back Fatty Arbuckle."

FOUR DROWNED

Bodies of Two Young Couples Found in Creek

Wilmington, Del., April 12—Two young couples were drowned in a millrace here during the night police revealed today with the finding of their automobile overturned in the creek. The machine is believed to have skidded off a drive during a sleet and snow storm last night.

The bodies were recovered early today and taken to the city morgue. The victims were thought to be Ernest Scott, Wilmington, Bernard Jackson, Newark, Del., Miss Eleanor Burnham, also of Newark, and a girl believed to be Miss Burnham's sister. The young men were about 22 years of age and the girls about 18 years, police said.

INTER-CONTINENTAL PLANE TAKES OFF IN DARKNESS

Paris, April 12—The French inter-continental fliers Dieudonne Costes and Joseph Lebrix hopped off at Karachi, India, last night for Aleppo, making the flight in tropical darkness, said a dispatch from Karachi today.

HOME IS BOMBED

Baltimore, Md., April 12—Romano John Romano, 51, ignored two threatening letters demanding $3,000, a bomb wrecked his home in Kenwood, Italian settlement, early today, and badly damaged 20 other homes in the neighborhood. Romano, his wife and 20 other occupants of the damaged homes were slightly injured.

City Marble Championship Is Won by Vaun Hartley

VAUN HARTLEY, 441 Scranton-av, and a student of the Silver Street School, reigned supreme in the city marble shooting tournament yesterday, winning the wrist watch awarded as first prize.

The marble contest was arranged as a part of the National Boys' week celebration sponsored by the Rotary Club and put on by the Boy Scout Troops of Marion.

Seventh grade students were to take part in the kite flying contests slated at 1 o'clock this afternoon at Vernon Heights Junior High School.

John Kinsey finished second in the marble contest, being awarded a Scout knife. Third place was taken by Joe Darnell, 1021 W. Center-st. The prize was an agate shooter.

Formal presentation of the awards will be made Friday night at the Boy Scout Court of Honor in Star Auditorium.

Another "Death Gamble" Is Started With Atlantic

NEW YORK, April 12—Another "gamble with death"—a westward flight across the Atlantic—is on, this time two Germans and an Irishman taking the "long chance" that already has cost the lives of five men and two women.

Three previous attempts were made to span the ocean, from Europe to America, and all of them ended in tragic failure.

Yet there is a strong belief in aviation circles here that the daring flight of the German plane Bremen, with Capt. Hermann Koehl, Baron Ehrenfried Huenefeld and Col. James J. Fitzmaurice aboard, will be successful. This belief is predicated on the fact that the most careful advance preparations were made and that the three men did not hop off until weather conditions seemed to be satisfactory in every respect.

If Koehl, Huenefeld and Fitzmaurice, who hopped off from Baldonnel Field, near Dublin, at 5:38 this morning (12:38 New York time) fly the 3,000 miles to Mitchel Field, at 90 to 100 miles an hour they may arrive between 7 a. m. and noon on Friday (New York time) probably more nearly the latter time.

HERE YOU ARE, PICK OUT YOUR FAVORITE ARTIST

GOITRE NOT A DISEASE

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

Milwaukee, Wis.—It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. 609, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wis., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The Doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Write him today.—Adv.

Prospect Group Gives Program on "Law Enforcement"

Prospect, April 12—The Woman's Missionary and Aid Society of the Reformed Church, met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Fitts, with Mrs. R. W. Herbster as leader. The meeting opened by repeating the prayer from the calendar, and singing "O Worship the King." Devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Herbster. The topic for discussion was "Law Enforcement," and the following readings were given: "Oath of Office," Mrs. C. P. Herr; "The First Twelve Amendments," Mrs. H. E. Thomas; "The Thirteenth to the Seventeenth Amendments." Mrs. Herbster; "The Eighteenth Amendment," Mrs. R. C. Windhorst; "The Nineteenth Amendment," Miss Adah Chapin. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Annetta Winters of Sendai, Japan. Mrs. C. F. Swaney gave the treasurer's report for the past year.

Initiation services were conducted for one new member, Miss Adah Chapin, after which the following officers were installed: president, Mrs. R. H. Stratton; vice president, Mrs. W. W. Wottring; recording secretary, Miss Mabel Oswald; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. E. Thomas; treasurer, Mrs. C. F. Swaney; departmental secretaries, literature, Mrs. W. H. Farnum; thank offering, Mrs. R. W. Herbster; life and memorial, Mrs. E. E. Wottring; stewardship, Mrs. A. M. Chapin; temperance, Mrs. W. J. Fitts; girls' mission guild, Miss Mabel Oswald; mission band, Miss Adah Chapin; college, Mrs. C. P. Herr; birthday, Mrs. T. H. Finefrock; committee on membership and organization, Mrs. Edward Griffith, Mrs. S. L. Wottring, Mrs. S. E. Sechrist. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. The May meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Edward Griffith with Mrs. E. E. Wottring as leader.

NO SUCCESSOR

Post Held by Chauncey Depew To Be Discontinued

New York, April 12—There will be no successor to the late Chauncey M. Depew as chairman of the board of directors of the New York Central Railroad, the directors decided at a meeting.

The office will be discontinued, they said.

A memorial resolution on the long service of Mr. Depew was adopted by the board of directors of the New York Central, Michigan Central and Big Four Railroads.

"CY" YOUNG MAY BE ON JURY TRYING HERRON

New Philadelphia, April 12—"Cy" Young, famous big league baseball pitcher of three decades ago, may be a member of the jury which will try William D. Herron, charged with choking his sister-in-law, Viola May, 21, to death and throwing her body into the Tuscarawas River. He has lived on a farm near here for the last several years. His name was one of 75 drawn from the jury wheel yesterday.

Counsel for Herron have announced that they will ask for a change of venue and in the event this request is granted, opening of the trial would be delayed several weeks. Herron is charged with first degree murder.

ORDERS BADGE TURNED IN

Lorain, April 12—O. E. Rankin, state prohibition agent for Lorain County has received notice from B. F. McDonald, state prohibition director at Columbus, to turn in his badge and other instruments of office by April 14. The reason for McDonald's action, it was stated in the letter of dismissal, was because Rankin had announced himself as a candidate for sheriff.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.—Adv.

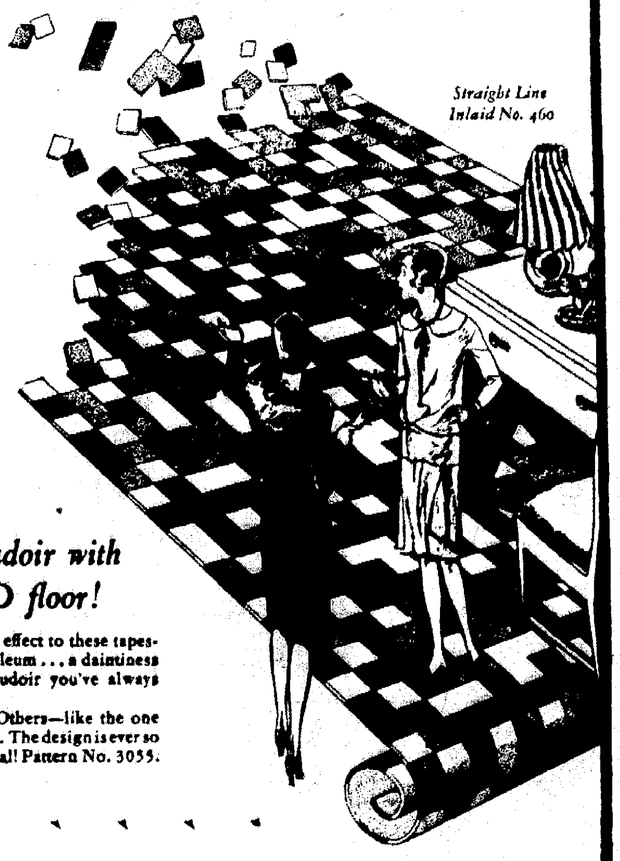
As dainty in color as Spring herself

Take the powder-blue of an early spring sky, the orange glow of a March sunset, add a warm and neutral gray—and you have? . . . the color scheme of this new Armstrong Floor!

The pattern is made up of tiny blocks and shapes, interestingly pieced together like the design of a Colonial patch-quilt.

The colors are softly toned to fit any color scheme you have now . . . or plan to have! At intervals, full-colored tiles are placed to give this floor the much sought character of hand-setting.

Here is one—and only one—of the many different floor ideas in Armstrong's Linoleum that local stores offer this week. A Spring Display of floors not to be missed!



Straight Line Inlaid No. 460

Picture YOUR boudoir with this EMBOSSED floor!

There's a textured, hand-woven effect to these tapestry designs in Armstrong's Linoleum . . . a daintiness as feminine as that of the boudoir you've always planned to have.

Some are smooth-surfaced. Others—like the one pictured—are actually embossed. The design is ever so slightly pressed in. Quite unusual! Pattern No. 3055.

NOW Armstrong Floors have ACCOLAC FINISH . . . (added value!)

Now Armstrong Floors have a welcome added value—a durable, beautiful finish of Accolac. Accolac is a lacquer surface that not only lends a rich, semi-dull luster to Armstrong's Linoleum, but saves your time and effort by keeping these floors more beautiful. Dirt is not ground into the floor; it stays on the surface; easily, quickly brushed up.

COLOR SCHEMES for your rooms will be found among the thirty-two pages of "The Attractive Home—How to Plan Its Decoration." Hazel Dell Brown's new book tells exactly how to plan the decoration of any room. Sent upon receipt of ten cents. Address

ON THE

Streets of Marion

WITH THE STAR STAFF

THESE are the days of theater building. On all sides, do we find palatial structures going up. One wonders, sometimes, if there isn't the danger of a city becoming overseated with theaters but still the owners seem to find people enough to fill them.

Marion itself will be enjoying the pleasures of a new theater before the next winter sets in, if plans of the builders do not go astray. The steel bulk of the Palace is taking on engaging proportions.

Mansfield not so long ago opened a new house and shortly before that Lima added another theater to its string. Columbus has a new and palatial emporium of entertainment. And, by the way, all three of them have taken upon themselves the name Ohio—a fad that lends honor to the Buckeye State. Ironically enough, Toledo is getting ready to launch a new theatrical enterprise. Springfield is getting accustomed to the new State and it seems that the opening of a new house is almost a weekly occurrence in Cleveland.

The more the merrier. The one person who benefits by these theaters is the patron whose 30, 40 or 50 cents makes the wheels go round. More theaters make more competition and more competition makes for better programs and better business for the theaters themselves.

AN American citizen can hold his standing in the ranks of democracy and at the same time display evidence of pride in his European ancestry, according to a New York jewelry firm which offers family coats of arms for sale.

Residents of Marion received [illegible] letters from the company this week announcing that it is prepared to supply them with their official family insignia.

Almost every name of European origin, the company states, was designated many years ago by a totem or seal. Origin of these symbols, it is said, is found far back in the feudal years when language was crude and few people could read or write.

Every seal is evidence that the one entitled to use it is the representative of an old and honorable family, the New York firm declares. To make it clear that use of the insignia on jewelry, stationery, the old Model T or any other personal property is not an expression of snobbishness, the letter sent out this week includes a quotation from George Washington. According to the words assigned to him, he believed that use of coats of arms in this country is O. K. and by no means a diversion from the principals of true democracy.

So those who are qualified and desire to exhibit their badge of blue-blood ancestry may proceed without a disturbed conscience to order a stock of their particular seals, totems and anything else along that line which may be in the market.

The cost is within the reach of all, so that the average citizen of modest means is in position to rank right along with his multi-millionaire countrymen, as far as totems are concerned.

An attractive hand-painted coat of arms, done in water colors on best cardboard and suitable for framing, sells for $15.

Solid gold, 14-karat seal rings sell for $15 up, watch fobs for $15 up and so on.

Get your orders in early before all of the neighbors begin flashing the proof of their aristocratic strain.

MARION organizations are not starting any too soon in their campaign to establish a Municipal Airport here. Other Ohio communities are getting in on the ground floor and several have already put their projects across.

Ashtabula and Painesville are among the cities pushing the enterprise vigorously and efforts are being made to obtain Federal aid. The congressmen in the districts where these towns are located are seeking to interest the government and apparently have prospects of success.

Considerable comment has been created here by the active part taken by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in promoting the airport project. An airport had been talked about before the Junior Chamber took a hand but that was about all.

The new organization proceeded to make inquiries and obtain information from cities where the project had been worked out. With this information available, the movement here was started toward its goal.

This and other activities of the Junior Chamber seem to indicate that it is going to become one of Marion's most effective booster organizations.

Over the Uniontown Hill

with a long, long lead

1929 Performance that you can have Today

Thirty miles south of Pittsburgh, the old National Highway climbs up over the backbone of the Alleghenys—the famous Uniontown Hill.

It's a heartbreaker—this Uniontown Hill. And it's the hill of hills to which all motordom goes for the final proof of a car's fitness after the easier tests on private proving grounds have been completed.

To this hill, Reo engineers went recently to test the new Flying Cloud. With the Flying Cloud went a number of the country's best known automobiles—a six, the greatest seller in its class, another which has won a unique record for increasing popularity, a third of recognized great engine power, and still another considerably higher in price than the others.

Here are the results of the Uniontown tests:

1 The Flying Cloud swept over the crest at a speed 22 per cent greater than that of its nearest rival, and sixty per cent faster than the most expensive of the cars tested.

2 The Flying Cloud made the entire climb of 1000 feet in 2.1 miles in from 14 per cent to 28.5 per cent less time than any of the others.

3 The Flying Cloud's maximum speed attained during the climb was 14 per cent greater than that of the next fastest car.

Speed Too!

Here assuredly is proof of greater power—and power that gives great speed on the straightaway. In speed trials, the Flying Cloud showed a clean pair of heels to all of the other cars tested. The car that came the closest to the Flying Cloud in the hill-climbing tests was the slowest on the level, while the car that was second to the Flying Cloud in top speed had been the slowest in hill climbing.... The new Reo Flying Cloud thus proves itself in both speed and hill-climbing. Others may achieve such efficiency in another year, but for today only the Flying Cloud gives you such demonstrated brilliance, such proved power. Try the new Flying Cloud for yourself. It will prove to you how far in advance it is.

Standing makes back and legs ache

How ¾ of the workers in the Straus Silk Mills relieve tired muscles

"... It's as good a job as any mill worker could ask—nice people to work with, good pay, fair conditions—but a factory job anywhere is bound to be hard work."

ONLY the mill workers themselves know how legs and feet can ache and how lame backs can be after a long day walking up and down a spinning frame.

Something they must have to take the ache out—to relieve the stiffness and fatigue which might otherwise make it necessary for them to miss many a day's work.

The workers in the Straus Silk Mills in Trenton are a particularly fresh, wholesome-looking lot of women. And so we asked them what they do to prevent aching and strain from standing at a spinning frame all day.

From three-quarters of them came promptly the answer, "I never use anything but Sloan's."

Everywhere the leading remedy for muscular pain

Everywhere you go you hear the same story from people whose work brings a strain on their muscles.

Read the experience of this New York woman—

"I had such a backache I didn't know what to do. I used Sloan's Liniment, and in half an hour I was better. Now, when anyone has a pain, I say, 'Use Sloan's.'"

Another woman writes—

"The pain in my back was like a knife stab and it left me helpless. Sloan's Liniment was given me to ease the pain and I am now able to do all my own work."

Sloan's Liniment is scientific—absolutely reliable because it works by the quickest, surest method known to relieve pain. It stirs up the circulation—brings new blood right to the spot where the pain is, sweeps away the cause of the trouble.

You can get it in any drug store. A bottle that will last you a long time for 35 cents. Use it for—

Rheumatism — Lame muscles
Sciatica — Stiff neck
Lumbago — Colds and congestions
Neuralgia — Sprains and bruises

A company doctor who cares for hundreds of workers every year says: "People whose work exposes them to strain or to damp and cold usually suffer from a good deal of muscular soreness. We find that Sloan's gives them quick, positive relief."

One of the workers in the Straus Silk Mills. 34 of these workers said that after a long day on their feet they find Sloan's their best help for tired backs and legs

SLOAN'S Endorsed universally by those who do the world's hard work

Marion County Fills Quota For Army Training Camp; Application List Still Open

Eight Young Men Accepted for Enrollment Here; Will Provide for Others Who Care To Enlist, County Chairman States

[illegible] County's quota for the [illegible] Training camp at [illegible] Harrison, Ind., this [illegible] filled, provisions will [illegible] additional young men [illegible] was announced today [illegible] Slade, county chairman [illegible] Soldiers here.

Those whose applications have been accepted and who will leave for camp on June 30, are William A. M Farlin, 243 W. Pleasant-st, Thomas E. Reed, 432 S. Prospect-st, Herman L. Fischer, 749 York-st, Charles E. Price, 435 Glad-st, Walter Moore, Rodney Sipes, Richard Walker and John Caldwell.

The last three named will go to camp this year for the second time and will take the Red course. Others will take the Basic course.

Get School Credit

A one-quarter unit credit in high school or college work is given for each summer that the camp is attended. These credits are recognized by practically all high schools and universities and would serve to graduate a student who should happen to be short in any half-unit study.

Four one-quarter units, showing that the student had taken four years training at the camp, would relieve him of taking the compulsory military training at state universities, it was explained by Mr. Slade today.

The camp will open on June 30 and close on July 29.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 15c, 30c, 60c —Adv.

FOYE SUIT HEARD BY COURT OF APPEALS

Former Marion Residents Are Parties in Action Over $125,000 Estate

Former Marion residents are litigants in a suit involving the $125,000 estate of George K. Foye Morrow County man, which was heard by the district Court of Appeals at New Philadelphia, yesterday.

The title of the suit is Frank Foye and Isabelle Foye Dexler against George K. Foye. The George K. Foye named as a defendant is a nephew of the man of the same name whose estate is in dispute. The nephew, a former Marion resident, is now an attorney in New York.

In the original will, Frank and Isabelle Foye were named as the chief beneficiaries but later a codicil was drawn bequeathing a larger share to the nephew, George K. Foye.

The question of whether George K. Foye is to receive a disputed amount of approximately $10,000 is the main point involved. In the Common Pleas Court of Morrow County, the suit was decided in favor of the plaintiffs and George K. Foye filed an appeal.

The case was taken under advisement by the district Court of Appeals following yesterday's hearing.

Fred W. Warner of the local law firm, Carhart & Warner, represented George K. Foye and Carl Henkle, Mansfield attorney, appeared for the plaintiffs.

COMPLETE PLANS

Mother-Daughter Banquet To Be Held by Club Members

Caledonia, April 12—Plans for the Mother and Daughter banquet to be held in the school dining room tonight were completed at a meeting of the Home Economics Club held at the home of Garnet Baird. The business session was in charge of the president, Mabel Linscott. A report of the purchase of chinaware was given by Naomi Clouse. The program included a debate by Lucile Rinker, Ethel Fink, Leona Pace and Naomi Clouse on the subject, "Resolve that every girl should study cooking some time during her high school course." History of the club was given by Lucile Rinker.

Two contests were held in which Esther Reece and Dorothy Scott won honors. Other amusements of the evening were games and music, and lunch was served by Miss Baird and her assistant hostesses, Mabel Linscott and Thelma Baird.

Those present aside from the hostesses were Dorothy Scott, director; Leona Pace, Naomi Clouse, Evelyn Ward, Ruth Dice, Dolores Timson, Eulah Mae Baird, Helen Tomlin, Esther Reece, Thelma Baird, Ethel Fink, Lucile Rinker, Belva Cox, Pearl Cox and Marjorie McKeever. Guests were Pauline Warner, Mildred Baird and Edith Gist. Hostesses for next meeting are Ethel Fink, Lucile Rinker and Marcella Geyer.

BOYS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL WILL TAKE UP ARCHERY

Caledonia, April 12—The Live Wire Class held its semi-monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Solon Robertson. During the business meeting it was decided to order material for archery for each of the boys. The pastor, Rev Fancher, was present and gave an instructive talk to the class. A social hour was held and lunch served by the hostess.

J. L. Rice, local distributor of General Electric refrigerating equipment, has moved his place of business from the Bodley & Osmun store to the new Harris building, corner of E. Center and Baker sts.

A complete line of General Electric refrigerators for domestic use is to be on display continually at his new location, Mr. Rice stated today. Electric refrigeration equipment will be available for houses of all sizes.

At this time, the local distributor is handling only equipment for household use. He expects to add the commercial line later on.

Mr. Rice has been in charge of the General Electric agency here since about six months ago, when he came here from Dayton.

Catarrhal Deafness Unnecessary

In catarrhal deafness there is a constant inflammation of the little air passage from throat to ear. This partially closes this tube, so the air cannot pass freely, and the result is distressing, rumbling noises, feeling of illness and dulled hearing. Relieve the inflammation of mucous membranes with Hall's Catarrh Medicine, and this condition clears up, inflammation is reduced, and Nature quickly restores a normal condition. Successful for over 40 years. Ask your druggist. Price 85c.

After Easter Factory Close Out

SALE OF TOPCOATS

$18.50

Values Up to $25.00

See Them In Our Windows

We just made one of the greatest Topcoat purchases in our history. A prominent manufacturer sold us his remaining made-up stocks after filling his Easter orders at price concessions of 25% to 30%.

The values were so extraordinary, the woolens, the patterns and the tailoring so excellent that we grasped the opportunity to buy 75 of these topcoats and offer them in a Friday and Saturday After-Easter Sale at the astonishing low price of $18.50.

Every one of these topcoats bears the label of a prominent maker of quality topcoats. The patterns and colorings are the smartest of the Spring season. There's a wide selection for both men and young men and if thrifty men recognize a real bargain when they see it these 75 topcoats will be snapped up in a hurry tomorrow and Saturday.

Blindfolded . . . in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt selects OLD GOLD

MRS. REGINALD C. VANDERBILT

"'I wonder if one can really tell the difference, when blindfolded,' was my first thought when invited to make this test.

"After smoking the four brands, as they were handed to me one after another, I discovered there was one that was noticeably smoother than the others and richer in taste.

"This proved to be an OLD GOLD. I hope I shall be able to buy them in Paris . . . they are surprisingly free from any trace of throat irritation and have a delightful aroma which to me is very important."

How Test Was Made

Mrs. Vanderbilt was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke . . . To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette . . . Mrs. Vanderbilt was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test . . . After smoking the four cigarettes, Mrs. Vanderbilt was asked to designate by number her choice . . . She immediately replied: "Number 3" . . . which was OLD GOLD.

The French say that American films are "a menace to world civilization because the sex psychology is unnatural;" because "they are written with twelve-year intelligence;" because "they ignore realities so much that at present they are a real danger to public health," and because "their hypocrisy is an insult to the world's progress, keeping the masses from a true understanding of the dignity of human existence." We assume that Will Hays will assure the French that these minor matters will be corrected at once.

A Little Agitation a Good Thing.

A well-known citizen, who is deeply interested in local affairs, said to us yesterday that he was glad that the North Side Civic association had launched a movement for the improvement of Lincoln park, even though nothing fruitful may result from it this year. "It shows the spirit," he said, "that I like to see manifested. I am satisfied that the present movement for the improvement of Main street would not have developed at this time had it not been for the activity last year of the property-owners along west Center street. And I anticipate that the present movements will lead to activity on the part of State street property-owners. As long as our people are quiescent, nothing is accomplished, but when one locality or one element starts the ball rolling, others begin to take notice and act to see that they are not overlooked."

There's a lot of truth in this. The growth of a passive citizenship is never marked, nor is that of improvements in a community in which the residents are willing to permit such conditions as may obtain to continue. It takes a certain amount of agitation to accomplish anything in the way of civic betterment. Sometimes agitation fails of its purpose. Sometimes there is too much agitation, so much that the people of the community tire of it, but even too much is better than none at all.

We were always somewhat impressed by the observation accredited to the mythical President Gardiner of the mythical Lime Kiln club, the newspaper feature of two score or more years ago, to the effect that very little progress had ever been made in this old world by putting in time looking over the back fence of an old graveyard.

Blow at Crime and Corruption.

The landslide victory scored in Tuesday's primary election by the Deneen faction of the Republican party of Illinois is significant of the determination of the decent, law-abiding element of the electorate of the state no longer to remain supine under the reign of terrorism and corruption which has brought disgrace to that state and its chief city and become a stench in the nostrils of the land.

It is true that, under ordinary conditions, the results in the primary of one party can not be taken to indicate the feeling of the majority of an entire electorate, but Tuesday's upheaval was such as to show that the entire state has become aroused, for there could not be in one of the old parties such a feeling against existing conditions without a pronounced reflection of that feeling in the other. We simply must take Tuesday's repudiation of the Small-Smith-Thompson-Crowe element of the Republican party of Illinois as evidence of a general uprising throughout the state, as well as in the city of Chicago, against the outrages and crimes inflicted upon a long-suffering citizenship.

Interest has been so centered on the factional fight in the Republican party of Illinois, that but little attention has been given to the Democratic candidates for nomination for the various offices, and we frankly confess that we are not prepared to speak of their merits or demerits, as their cases may prove. But it is safe to say that, when there is such a manifestation of feeling as was that of Tuesday, the electorate is thinking and is prepared to pick the best candidates, or those it considers the best candidates, for the offices to be filled.

The truth must be evident to all that the people of Illinois, and particularly the people of Chicago, who believe in law and order are determined to throw off the yoke of the criminal element. They are tired of murders and bombings, of bandits and gangsters, of the corruption of officials, of rule by rum-runners, bootleggers, narcotic peddlers, of thugs and gunmen and all other crimes and criminals of greater or lesser degree. And we look for them to get together, as the members of the Illinois criminal world are sure to get together, and present a solid front to the army of crime.

We are not saying that the present governor of Illinois, or the mayor of Chicago, or the state's attorney for Cook county, or all of them combined, have been responsible for the conditions which have obtained in the city of Chicago; but it is evident that the voters who have repudiated them hold them responsible. One could hardly give any other construction to the story told by the ballots of Tuesday.

But the campaign to cleanse Chicago and the state of Illinois is not brought to a satisfactory conclusion by the contest of this week. It is only begun. Whether it is successful will depend wholly on the maintenance of the spirit which made the victory in the Republican primary for law and order possible. If the determination is sustained, if the better class of citizenship is willing to forget party lines and act together for the bettering of conditions, then next November will see a victory for good such as has not been accomplished in years in the Sucker state. It is time that state should have a convincing exposition of the might of right.

A Chicago industrial survey shows that $24,000,000 expended by women for hosiery exceeded by $3,000,000 the money expended by men for all their furnishings. But, then, women's hosiery is so much more conspicuous at present than the furnishings of men that maybe the expenditure for it is justified.

DISTURBING THE RECITAL.

Cure Cold, Halt Pneumonia.

BY DR. ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

One of the most dreadful of the diseases of young children is that life-taking ailment, broncho pneumonia.

Mind you, this is not the kind of pneumonia which comes on suddenly and which is fatal to grown-up folks. The kind of pneumonia I am speaking of is really an extension of inflammation from the nose and throat to the bronchial tubes. It is common in children and always serious.

When a grown person has a cold it does not amount to much. Perhaps I should not state it just this way, because colds are too commonly neglected. But serious results are not frequently observed.

In young children, however, a cold is not a thing to be disregarded. What is so negligible in adults is most serious in infancy. You are aware, of course, that colds are among the most contagious of diseases. You will see that in any office or home. If one member of the household, or of the office staff has a cold, it won't be long before all the rest of the group will be infected.

Because of this contagiousness, it is most important to guard the infant against infection. When somebody in the family has a cold, the baby should be protected. It is absolutely wicked to expose this tender and helpless human being to the dangers of the common cold.

I use the word dangers advisedly. A cold may not be actually dangerous to you, but it is dangerous to a tiny babe. Why is it dangerous?

Because if a little baby gets a cold and it is not relieved at once, within a week it may creep down to the lungs. Then there is trouble.

In the air and all about us are innumerable germs. It is a wonder that anybody escapes disease. But here is a delicately constituted baby, all ready to take up these harmful germs.

On top of all this, are the outrageous ways an attractive baby is treated. Hugged and tossed and tumbled and kissed—no wonder the child rebels!

If you have the slightest suspicion you have a cold, leave the baby alone. The kindest thing you can do is to shun the child.

An infant should not be taken into street cars, crowded elevators, stores and other places where crowds gather. Guard that precious life as you would the most valuable diamond the world ever saw.

Many folks are most inconsiderate of the rights of others. Nobody should sneeze, or cough, or talk loudly, under such circumstances as to spray moisture into the air. Every drop of this secretion is loaded with infectious material if you have a cold.

If in spite of all your precautions the baby gets a cold, talk with your doctor about it. A stitch in time saves time.

MARKET STREET.

He stops in front of the store windows where
Little white chicks in brooders roll like balls.
He looks at dry brown bulbs till people stare
At him, but he can vision garden walls
Where tall gladioli and dahlias stand
Like brilliant ladies in the unfolding ferns.
He visions rows of garden truck, his hand
Is clenched as if he hoed, and then he turns
To look beyond the box of flower seeds.
Verbenas, phlox and larkspur now he sows,
Carefully guarding them from treacherous weeds
That come in armies down the little rows.

He scatters seed upon the lawn, and grass
Appears, as green and tender as on those
Elysian fields where only fairies pass.
Right here before his eyes a garden grows
And chickens peck, and drooping [illegible] cup
He holds for them. He [illegible] to pet
His chicks, who lives but [illegible]

Editorial Opinion.

SAY "NO" TO THE NICARAGUAN CANAL.

Senator McKellar's bill providing for the immediate construction of a Nicaraguan canal, financed by $200,000,000 of government bonds, will not awaken much enthusiasm in the Middle West. In our part of the world the feeling will be general that the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway is a project to which the government might much better devote its attention.

The Panama canal was built by the American people, and yet the effect of it was to harm the commercial interests of the interior cities to the advantage of the cities on the coasts. This fundamental injustice has never been rectified. One section of the United States was called upon to help pay for a project which was detrimental to its own development but distinctly helpful to the development of rival sections.

A Nicaraguan canal would do nothing towards redressing the balance. Rather would it make matters worse. We in the Northwest would be expected to meet our proportionate share of the costs, and would thus be paying out more good money to aid the coast cities and to handicap ourselves.

There is no immediate need for a new canal. The Panama canal is now being used to only fifty per cent. of its capacity. The military men advance the argument that with two canals we should have nothing to worry about even if the Panama canal were put out of commission. This argument doesn't impress us much. A billion dollars is a pretty tall sum to invest in a little added edge of security. A fifth of that sum invested in armament would guarantee the canal's safety against enemy attack.

Talk of constructing a Nicaraguan canal at present is premature. The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway should have a place in the line ahead of the Nicaraguan canal. Let's forget the Nicaraguan canal until such time as the midwest has got some sort of a fair break.—Minneapolis Tribune.

A FLAG OF FRAGRANT MEMORY.

The Unknown Soldier of France, who sleeps forever beneath the Arc de Triomphe, is to have a special flag all his own, according to Paris dispatches. There are more than half a thousand veterans' and patriotic associations composing "The Flame," the greater organization which each evening conducts the impressive little ceremony of relighting, figuratively, the flame which burns forever over that honored grave. As all have different banners and other insignia it has been agreed that one emblem only be displayed hereafter at this and similar ceremonials having to do with this particular spot.

No announcement is yet forthcoming as to the design; probably it has not yet been passed upon or possibly even made. The tri-color of the French republic for whose honor the Unknown gave his life will undoubtedly be prominent therein. It is to be hoped that somewhere the newly created flag will bear a cross, notwithstanding the wickedness, the waste and the entirely un-Christlike aspects of war. Each of the struggling nations in the great conflict was sure that the Lord was on its side. Now it is apparent that He was on the side neither of victor nor vanquished. Nevertheless, there is a close connection between patriotism and religion; war-torn banners are hung in lofty cathedrals; the Unknown who went to his death in defense of his beloved country doubtless went cheerfully and was fighting for what he was convinced was the right.

Some day wars will cease entirely, but before that day comes more wars will be necessary to convince mankind of the futility and the sin of embarking thereon. Great leaders are usually religious men. General Pershing remarked recently that his chief interest at present was in building in France monuments to the memory of the service of American soldiers, and in building here at the national capital the great cathedral "to the glory of Him to whom we owe all our greatness." In spite of the fact of the ungodliness of war per se, it calls forth certain godly and god-like aspects in mankind. The Unknown has "fought the good fight." Let there be on his banner the emblem of eternal peace.—Washington Star.

ABOUT "UNFIT WOMEN."

A most learned doctor, Dr. Louis E. Bisch, not only in medicine, but philosophy as well, if one believes in titles, declared in the April number of McCall's magazine that women are eminently unfit for service on juries. And then the learned medic proceeds to set forth his reasons for his rash statement by saying:

"Women make snap intuitive judgments, based entirely upon their emotional outlook, and then justify them afterwards.

"Women can be positively vicious in judging other women. But in judging men, their judgment invariably is prompted by their emotional ideals, apart from reasoned proof of guilt or innocence.

"Forming quick and frequent judgments is precisely what every woman does. For argument, logic, connected thought, pure deduction or pure reasoning, she cares practically nothing. Every woman is envious and jealous of every other woman."

Lo, a Daniel has come to judgment in the person of Dr. Bisch, if one will be beguiled with his faulty logic. Also he was unhappy in his choice of diction when he used the word, "vicious" in referring to women. He has set himself up in judgment of his sisters, and it does not require the understanding of a Solomon to be aware of the face that he wields rather a "vicious" pen himself. In fact, it would seem that he dipped it into a [illegible] before writing the above philippic and spread it all over several columns before it [illegible]—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Man's Telltale Foot.

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS.

Look at your feet, and—drop your plumes [illegible] the peacock in case they make [illegible] ashamed of your ancestry. The best proof that our forefathers once dwelt in trees is to be found in the pedal extremities.

Remember in the first place that man is a mammal, but not a primitive mammal. He came much later upon the stage. Now, the primitive mammals, says Dr. Dudley J. Morton in the American Journal of Physical Anthropology, were quadrupeds, and from that state of four-footed progression three types of two-footed locomotion have been evolved. These are (1) the kangaroo-arboreal—running—type of the ancient reptiles and bird life; (2) the leaping type of the kangaroo, tarsius, etc., (3) the erect arboreal type, of which man is the highest [illegible] nature.

Now again, comparative anatomy shows that in the terrestrial—ground-dwelling—mammals the primitive functional axis, or leverage axis, ran through the middle of the foot. But "at some time in pre-human history the functional axis became transferred from the middle to the inner border of the foot." This transference, with the unusual length and development of the inner border, is "the most distinctive character of the human foot."

What is the meaning of that? No adequate explanation has been found except that "the human foot passed through an ancient grasping stage, such as has been preserved in existing anthropoids."

Note, too, the following statement. "The occasional presence of this character—the transposed position of the axis—in only the larger New world monkeys gives reason to believe that this transportation did not develop in the ancient anthropoid stock until its representatives had gained considerably in size; also that the pre-human representatives were not of small stature when this change occurred in their feet."

To cut the story short, it appears that in his altogether prehuman state man was at first a ground dweller, and had feet after the terrestrial mammalian type. Then, after attaining a considerable stature, he fled up into the trees—was it a flight for refuge inspired by terror, or a migration in search of food or shelter? Whatever the cause may have been, this creature was not yet human and had no psychology. Its foot, which was to develop into the human foot, had its axis shifted toward the inner edge to meet the needs of grasping and climbing. All the anthropoid types show this shifting, so they must all have begun on the ground.

But the time came when they got down to the ground again. It was after this descent that the real human type began its evolution. The observations indicate that "there was a sequence of two stages in the development of the human type of foot: (1), an early stage when the leverage axis was moved toward the inner side with the development of an arboreal grasping function, and (2), a subsequent stage when the inner border became enlarged in association with ground-living habits."

The prehuman creature that became man got down out of the trees to stay down. This resulted, through the effects of terrestrial locomotion, in dearrangement of the bones of his feet and especially in the lengthening and strengthening of the inner border, before spoken of. The gorilla foot shows an approximation of the readjustment of the human foot for terrestrial life because many gorillas have long lived mostly on the ground. The chimpanzee foot retains more of the arboreal grasping type because the chimpanzee more completely retains the tree living habits.

A very significant statement in this evolution story is this: "In freeing man's arms from the function of locomotion, bipedism favored a wider scope of inter-dependent action between the hands and the brain.—Copyright, 1928, International Feature Service, Inc.

New York hotels, incidentally, are frowning on the party. Aside from the noise, the damage to furnishings has become a little too heavy. The management now has a way of putting the lid on hilarity. They point to the fact that furnishing accessories for making drinks is against the law and they refuse further room service when whoopers grow too whoopish.

There are, police estimate, some 10,000 amateur correspondence school detectives in New York. Every crime of a mysterious nature attracts them as flies to sugar with microscopes, disguises and other copybook paraphernalia of the sleuth hunter. Many continue searching for clues long after the police have given up hope. They have a Penrod naivete and eagerness and hard-boiled police vernacular show them a tolerance that is pleasant. At least, they do no harm.

Apartment building owners deplore a murder in one of their apartments, not only for the bad repute it gives a building, but for actual loss from rental. Nearly always the apartment is re-numbered and loquacious elevator boys are dismissed, but even then the news leaks out and renters want immediately to move. There is a $10,000-a-year apratment on the upper West Side that was the scene of a brutal murder seven years ago. Two tenants occupied it for a little more than two months at a stretch, but they were the only occupants since the tragedy.

New York leads the world in pedestrian pests who take the sidewalk. Two of them were galloping north on Madison avenue, spinning several passersby on their heels and crowding a few others to the gutters with no thought of apology. At Fiftieth street they brushed a lady walking with a sedate looking gentleman. But he wasn't so sedate. He grabbed each of them, knocked their heads together and demanded they apologize to the lady. They did, abjectly, nor have I ever seen such an exhibition of what the prize fighter knows as "yellow."—Copyright, 1928, by the McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

Paul R. Heyl, Washington physicist, has been weighing the world. Buried in a laboratory cell, thirty-five feet under ground, he manipulates instruments that give him an idea of the weight of the earth. Whatever the millions of tons of bulk of this earth it amounts to nothing without a controlling idea. An idea has no bulk. It can not even be seen. Its size and shape it is not even a tiny, fleeting shadow. But immeasurable tons of matter, without an idea, are merely tons of waste. And somewhere, at the beginning of all this untold bulk of earth, at the beginning of all this untold bulk of stars and planets, was an idea.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, eighty-seven-year-old member of the United States supreme court, has a motto. He says, "Rest is not the destiny of man." He might with equal truth say that a routine, day by day job, is not the destiny of man. Work, merely as work, is not the destiny of man. Achievement is something else. Mere idleness has little place in life, but change of work, change of routine may have a very important place.

One of the best of short and simple rules for success is "learn every job before you try to boss it." It is pleasant to see a man promoted to higher office and to find he has studied the job that was ahead of him so carefully that he is thoroughly capable of being a boss. And nothing is more tragical than the tragedy of the unprepared.

BRING COLOR LINE INTO HOOVER FIGHT

Stephens of Mississippi Makes Charges Against Secretary in Senate

April 12—A new issue ... the color line be... and Negroes in the Cen... sus Bureau, was raised ... against Herbert Hoover, leadi... for the Republican presidential nomination.

Senator Hubert D. S... Democrat of Mississippi, ... Hoover had issued the order to a ... Negro political leaders ... cited conditions in the ... Bureau to the Senate and ... Hoover immediately ... Stephens placed in the record an exchange of letters between ... and Hoover on the subject.

In his first letter, S... called Hoover's attention to newspaper articles about an order abandoning segregation and allowing the Negroes to mingle with whites in toilets and cloakrooms. The articles said E. W. B. Curry, a Negro editor and Hoover delegate in Springfield, Ohio, had come to Washington to get the order issued.

"The effect of these articles is to place the whole burden of this action on you," Stephens wrote, "and to charge that it was taken for political purposes. * * *

"That such action could be taken for political advantage is almost beyond belief, yet it seems to be true."

In reply, Hoover said the articles were "in large degree foolish untruths." He added that "if such action as was taken is against the interest of either the white or colored employes, they have a full right to present the matter to me. I have received no complaint from either group."

NORWALK MAN SLAIN, BELIEF OF POLICE

New Clews Tend To Further Discredit Theory Jackson Was Suicide

Norwalk, April 12—New clews in the shooting of Thayer Jackson 42 well-known furniture dealer who was found with a bullet through his head in the bedroom of his home here Wednesday, tend to further discredit the theory that he was a suicide, authorities said today.

Although they have uncovered enough evidence to convince them that Jackson was murdered, police admitted that thus far they had no leads as to the identity of the killer.

Coroner C. L. Bell has refused to give an opinion as to whether death was the result of murder or suicide. It is pointed out, however, that there were no powder marks on the victim's head, and that his widow did not recognize the pistol which lay beside the body. She said, in fact, that her husband had never owned a gun.

Of Wealthy Family

Jackson was a member of one of northern Ohio's wealthiest families and presumably had no business worries or any other motive for suicide. Wednesday morning Jackson failed to appear at his furniture store and William Binzley, his business associate, asked Police Chief F. R. Remington and a patrolman to investigate.

On ringing the front door bell, the police officers report that they heard a noise, evidently a scuffle followed by the slamming of a door.

After failing to force the front door, the officers gained entrance to the house through a cellar window and found Jackson in his bedroom, fully clothed, and shot in the head. He was still alive but unconscious and died a short time later.

Mrs. Jackson had been visiting her mother in Kenton and was summoned home immediately. She is of the opinion that her husband was murdered. A quantity of silverware was found stacked on a table, lending credence to the theory that the killing was committed by a burglar.

Jackson at one time gained some recognition as a Shakespearean actor. His father, C. F. Jackson, one of the wealthiest and best known business men of this section, now lives in California.

WOMEN ARE HOSTESSES

Pythian Sisters, Canby Lodge, No. 152, banqueted the men of Canby Lodge, No. 51, at a chicken dinner last night at the temple. A play by women of the lodge was given during the program hour, followed by euchre and bridge. For the last five weeks every Wednesday night the two lodges have played euchre, the losing side having to banquet the winners at the end of the contest.

"It Just Happens"

says Edna Wallace Hopper, "that your shoulders, for convenience and custom's sake, are covered. And how fine the texture of their skin!

"Your face must be the harbor for innumerable specks of dust and soot, lashed by the wind—treated harshly day in and day out. So if you thoughtlessly attempt to cleanse it with soap and water, ugly, large pores, seamy roughness result.

Edna Wallace Hopper as she looks today

"Your face is entitled to the best of care. It's even easier than the hit-or-miss method of washing, which places additional tax on an over-burdened skin.

"My French liquid cleanser, which I call Facial Youth, goes to the depths of your pores, gently, actually removes the dirt and soothingly undoes the harm of the wind and dust. It has a fresh, clean scent and is by far the best method I know of to protect and cleanse the face. Get Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth at any toilet counter, 75 cents."—Adv.

Meditations OF A Married Woman

BY HELEN ROWLAND

THE real test of a man's love, these days, is not whether he is willing to commit murder or suicide for you, but whether he is willing to commit MATRIMONY for you, in spite of all his instincts, his sense of self-preservation and the solemn warnings of his soul!

Not whether he is chivalrous enough to lie for her—but whether he is fair enough to tell you the TRUTH—and face the music.

Not whether he is willing to give up the things that he knows are bad for him, like late hours, cocktails and poker parties—but whether he is willing to give up the things he thinks are good for him, like Spring onions and low collars and wide-open windows in Winter.

Not whether he is willing to stay up late to play around with you—but whether he is willing to get up early and go to WORK for you.

Not whether he is willing to give up his family and all his old pals for you—guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. but whether he is willing to give up his little pet habits to please you.

Not whether he is willing to die for you—but whether he is willing to go right on living for you and slaving for you, after all the illusions have worn off, and you are getting a little faded and rotund and have lost your girlish charm and pep.

Not whether he is willing to indulge and pamper you and spend his money on you—but whether he is willing to TRUST you and to bank his faith on you.

Not whether he is willing to provide for your future, but whether he is anxious to make your PRESENT as happy and easy and joyous as possible, by taking most of the burdens off your shoulders.

Not whether he is willing to be true to you—but whether he is willing to be KIND to you, and gentle and tolerant and magnanimous.

Not whether he remembers to bring you candy or flowers or trinkets every time he comes back from a trip—but whether he remembers to leave his grouches at the office and to park his bad tempers outside the front door.

Not whether he would "go through Purgatory" to win you, but whether he would "go straight," and keep right on going that way, AFTER he had won you!

• • •

Oh yes, the proof of a mans love, nowadays, are not the daring, dashing and spectacular things they were in the days when Sir Francis leaped among the lions to pick up a lady's glove. They are the subtle, sub-conscious little gesture of which he is barely aware, but which mean more to a discerning woman than all the protests in the world!

PRESIDENT CHOSEN

By Federation of Music Clubs at Dayton Convention

Dayton, April 12—The Federation of Music Clubs elected these officers: president, Mrs. Mary L. Goodbread, Cleveland; first vice president, Mrs. John Sutphin Jones, Granville; second vice president, Mrs. R. A. Hetbrock, Dayton; parliamentarian, Mrs. H. L. Ramer, Youngstown; recording secretary, Mrs. E. C. Kanny, Cleveland; treasurer, Mrs. Walter D. Crebs, Dayton; auditor Mrs. Mary Megley, Toledo.

The Music Teachers' Association which is meeting jointly with the Federation of Music Clubs, conducted a session today with Mrs. Clara Turpen Grimes of this city, presiding. O. E. Gebhardt, Dayton, president, gave his annual address in which he reviewed the work of the organization for the year. F. Karl Grossman also was a speaker at the meeting.

A combined meeting, school orchestra work was demonstrated yesterday afternoon. Paul C. Stetson, Superintendent of Schools, was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Edgar Stillman Kelley, Oxford, Ohio, President of the National Federation of Music Clubs, presided at the annual dinner last night. Mrs. Goodbread and Mr. Gebhardt, presidents of the respective music bodies, were among the speakers. James Francis Cook, editor of Etude, also spoke. The musical numbers were given by Daniel Ericourt, Cincinnati pianist, and the Holstein-Hein trio.

IN ANNUAL PLAY

Miss Virginia Knapp Will Take Part in University Presentation

Miss Virginia Knapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Knapp, 512 Vernon Heights-blvd, and a graduate of Harding High School, class of 1926, is a member of the cast of 100 students who will take part in the annual musical comedy, "It's All in Good Clean Fun" to be presented at Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Friday and Saturday nights.

The play is being given under the auspices of Omicro Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity, and has been written and produced, even to the designing and manufacture of costumes and scenery, by Ohio Wesleyan students:

Last year Miss Knapp attended school at Miss Mason's Castle on the Hudson.

How Much Water Should Baby Get?

A Famous Authority's Rule

By Ruth Brittain

Baby specialists agree nowadays, that during the first six months, babies must have three ounces of fluid per pound of body weight daily. An eight pound baby, for instance, needs twenty-four ounces of fluid. Later on the rule is two ounces of fluid per pound of body weight. The amount of fluid absorbed by a breast fed baby is best determined by weighing him before and after feeding for the whole day; and it is easily calculated for the bottle fed one. Then make up any deficiency with water.

Giving baby sufficient water often relieves his feverish, crying, upset and restless spells. If it doesn't, give him a few drops of Fletcher's Castoria. For these and other ills of babies and children such as colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, sour stomach, loss of sleep, underweight, etc., leading physicians say there's nothing so effective. It is purely vegetable—the recipe is on the wrapper—and millions of mothers have depended on it in over thirty years of ever increasing use. It regulates baby's bowels, makes him sleep and eat right, enables him to get full nourishment from his food, so he increases in weight as he should. With each package you get a book on Motherhood worth its weight in gold.

Just a word of caution. Look for the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the package so you'll be sure to get the genuine. The forty cent bottles contain thirty-five doses.—Adv.

Little Green Capsules Stop Rheumatic Agony

Prove It In 5 Days

There's nothing in the world that brings such quick and complete relief from the pain and misery that makes life almost unbearable as those tiny green capsules known from coast to coast as Allenrhu Number 2.

More than one man and woman whom horrible rheumatism has been carrying down to helplessness—suffering the torture of the damned can testify to this.

All you have to do is to take one tiny capsule each hour for the first ten hours, the next day one every two hours for 14 hours then take as directed.

Substitutes and imitations may be offered you but remember it's "the little green Capsule" that is turning the trick and bringing joy to thousands of Rheumatic sufferers, so insist on Allenrhu No. 2.

Heuney & Cooper or any reputable druggist in America will be glad to supply you.—Adv.

Says Buttermilk Keeps Her Skin Like a Girl's

Here's an old-fashioned beauty recipe that's well worth while trying. More than one woman disgusted with high-priced beauty treatments can testify to that. And it's the simplest, easiest way you ever heard of—just good old-fashioned buttermilk—but you would go a long way before you find its equal.

Gently it reduces enlarged unsightly pores, tones up the skin, tightens sagging muscles and leaves the tissues invigorated and nourished. One woman of 65 whose complexion is like a girl's says she never used any other beauty aid than pure buttermilk.

Just get a jar or tube of Howard's Buttermilk Cream at Heuney & Cooper's or your druggist today—you can use nothing better or purer—and remember it saves you money. It's guaranteed to please you or it costs you nothing.—Adv.

Don't Suffer The Tortures of Rheumatism

Just because you have tried a lot of so-called rheumatic remedies or treatments without getting any lasting relief, that is no reason why you should say, "Nothing can help me," because there is something that will give you quick results and that is RHEUMA.

Rheuma will absolutely end all your rheumatic misery or it will not cost you one penny. So if you really want to get blessed relief from those awful stabbing knife-like pains—if you really want to drive those dull, grinding, numbing aches completely out of your system, just step into your druggist's and ask for a bottle of Rheuma.

It matters not whether you are tortured with pain, suffering with sore, inflamed joints or distressed with occasional twinges, Rheuma is sold by Heuney & Cooper, and all good druggists with guarantee to end rheumatic suffering or money back.—Adv.

DEPUTY IS GUEST

Head of District Conducts D. of A. Lodge Inspection

District Deputy, Mrs. Josephine Stucker, Ashland, was in charge of the inspection Tuesday night of Daughters of America in Junior Order Hall. One candidate was initiated and one was balloted on. Bucyrus Council No. 110, and Paramount Council No. 37 were guests at the hall last night. An invitation was extended from the Junior Order to the Daughters to attend the Booster Club meeting May 7 at the hall. The next regular meeting will be May 24.

LOCAL LODGE MEMBERS PLAN TO ATTEND RALLY

Arrangements were made for attending a state rally at Mansfield Friday, May 25 at the meeting of the Woman's Benefit Association yesterday afternoon at Junior Order Hall, W. Center-st. The supreme president of the association, Miss Rina M. West, of Port Huron, Mich., will be present at the rally. The next regular meeting of the association will be held at the hall, April 25.

AUXILIARY MEMBERS WILL ATTEND STATE MEETING

The local order of the Ladies' Lodge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen will put on the work of receiving a new pass at the Ohio State Convention in Chillicothe April 19. A large delegation from the Marion lodge is planning to attend. The local lodge met yesterday in Druids' Hall and conducted the usual routine business.

TWO-DAY SCHOOL

New Ideas in Cooking To Be Presented By Expert

Miss Mary Dunbar, graduate of the Home Economics Department of the University of Illinois, will conduct a cooking school between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock Friday and Saturday afternoon at the Marion Furniture Co. E. Center-st. The subject of Friday's lesson will be "New Kinds for Luncheon Dishes" and Saturday's lesson on "Salads." Miss Dunbar was for many years a dietitian in a large Chicago Hospital.

'The Understanding Heart'

A Story of the California Forests

BY PETER B. KYNE

(Copyright, 1926, Peter B. Kyne by arrangement with King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

CHAPTER 21

[illegible] was that quick [illegible] I'd have asked a million." Uncle Charley [illegible] cordially at Thurlow. "Name your price. You [illegible] that." Thurlow warned him. "The Uncle Charley breed [illegible] word once passed is [illegible]

[illegible] But for me [illegible] continued, "it was not." [illegible]'s net. Do you think I had you up for a commission deal? The Hercules Company pays for my services."

"I was [illegible]' to insult you, boy. What I'm thinkin' of is [illegible] income taxes. I don't [illegible] that section an' then give [illegible] money to a Republican government. That's what I mean by net. The [illegible] owed's got to settle for my [illegible] taxes on the deal."

"What all of your proposition?"

"It's the last of it, boy."

[illegible] on behalf of the company, Uncle Charley whistled in exact imitation of a cuckoo. All right, boy. [illegible]

Prepare your deed, get the [illegible] certified check an' you'll own a [illegible] claim."

John Thurlow thrust out his hand; Uncle Charley grasped it and shook it heartily. Thurlow knew better than to ask Uncle Charley to sign an agreement of sale and accept a check then and there to bind the bargain. So he found it Uncle Charley's way, with a solemn hand-shake, and shortly thereafter quitted the cabin.

Uncle Charley returned to his interrupted tailoring, and as he sewed with great, coarse stitches he whistled "O Promise Me!" interrupting the melody from time to time to swear with great fluency and a wealth of artistic detail until for the second time that morning a rap resounded on his cabin door.

"Come in if you're good-lookin' an' not a female," he piped. He was always cautious.

John Thurlow stood in the doorway. "By the way, Uncle Charley," he stated, "I forgot to ask you about your wife's signature. In this state a married man cannot legally transfer title to real property unless his wife also signs the deed. I understand you were married when you acquired that property."

Uncle Charley's eyes flashed. "Better let sleeping' dawgs lie," he suggested.

"I would, but our lawyers will not. Will it be possible for us to secure Mrs. Canfield's signature?"

"You find her an' ask her, young feller. I ain't seed hide nor hair of the woman for 20 year, an' if she was to come in that door I'd go out that winder. Mebbe she's dead!"

"But you do not know that she is, I take it?"

"No, sir. That's one of the pleasures life has denied your Uncle Charley."

Thurlow laughed. "Perhaps you have secured a divorce."

"Hell, no! A burned child dreads the fire, so what'd I need a decoree for? I started one but never finished it. I wasn't figgerin' on gittin' married again."

"I'm afraid this makes it awkward. Confound you, Uncle Charley, what made you get married in the first place?"

"What makes dogs eat grass? Sickness, boy, that's what. I must have been sick in my mind. I'd made a strike over in Shasta County an' like a fool I had to go to work an' incorporate the mine. Well, sir, two years later I had more money than some folks have hay, so I went down to San Francisco." Uncle Charley wagged his head. "I told you I used to be a heller! Well, I met a gal an' danged if I don't go crazy an' marry her. She—was—expensive! Yes, sir! She certainly was.

"I usetter give her money just to keep her quiet, but money wasn't enough for the cussed woman. She wanted my stock in the Shasta Daisy Minin' Company—kept tellin' me I'd ought to give it to her to insure her old age, although I reckon that at the time she was just risin' 25. When I tell her there's plenty o' time to consider her declinin' years she purss out cry n' no' claims I don't love her no more, so just to prove I do love her, I incorporate a minin' company on the spur o' the moment an' call it the Shasta Daisy Minin' Corporation, which is just different enough from the Shasta Daisy Minin' Company to be legal. Then I get a lawyer to draw up a paper for my wife to sign.

"This paper states that for an' in consideration of the gift to her of all of my stock in the Shasta Daisy Minin' Corporation, she waives all her dower rights an' community property rights in everything else I got or we got before, then or thereafter.

"Little Lovesight signs this paper before a notary public an' I give her the stock, whereupon she kisses me an' hugs me, an' says, 'Oh, Charley, you do love me, don't you?' Well I tear up under this with becomin' modesty an' I says to her, 'Well, now we'll see how much you love Uncle Charley.'

"I didn't have long to wait. She writ me a note in about a week, sayin' she loved me but she'd have to leave me—an' she done it! So I went back to the Shasta Daisy Minn an' in about a month she shows up with her lawyers an' wants to know how come I don't send her some dividends. 'I'm not aware that you got any stock in the Shasta Daisy Minin' Company, sweetheart,' I says, 'but since you own all the stock in another corporation called the Shasta Daisy Minin' Corporation, which the sole assets of the same is a couple of acres of country rock over in Trinity County, I suggest you go over there an' pry dividends out o' that.'

"Whereupon little Lovelight screeches an' faints, an' when she comes to she goes away swearin' I'm a swindler an' that she'll have the law on me. I reckon she changed her mind, because I ain't never seen her angel face since, but—I still got that there paper, an' it's recorded at the county-seat."

"Uncle Charley Canfield," John Thrulow declared, "you're a little old fox of the mountains, that's what you are. That makes everything perfectly lovely."

Uncle Charley jabbed the needle in the patch. "A stitch in time saves nine," he declared in the piping treble of age. "I told you I was a heller in my day. Still am! Te-he! Heh-heh! Heh! Heh-heh!"

"Sounds like an old goat," John Thurlow reflected as he climbed into his automobile and returned to his office at Dogwood Flats.

"I am so happy that the last pimple is gone—"

WITHOUT this handicap, there returns the very natural confidence, joy and cherished pride of possessing a clear skin.

Men and women both justly covet admiration, and you can expect such satisfaction only if you are happy in a clear, unblemished skin.

The sure way to reach this state is through the blood.

Red blood cells are Nature's elements for building and sustaining the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

Thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking a few bottles of S.S.S.—Nature's own tonic for restoring the appetite—building strength—and clearing the body of so-called skin troubles.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

Takes Lead

Girls like this who have learned the art of keeping themselves always attractive usually lead wherever they may be. She follows the rule. She's Carlotta Marino, of 57 West 58th St., New York City, much admired in the Vanities, the Follies and George White's Scandals, and feminine star of the movie hit, "No Trespassing." She says: "When people admire my complexion or my hair, I tell them they can easily keep theirs the same way by simple care. The new way so many of us here in New York are doing our hair is especially easy. All we do is put a few dashes of Danderine on our brushes every time we use them.

"It's marvelous to see how beautifully clean and shining this keeps your hair. I don't have to shampoo half as often now. I set my waves with Danderine, too, aand it holds them ever so much longer. All dandruff disappeared with a few applications and my scalp always feels fine, now."

Danderine removes that oily film from your hair and gives it new life and luster. It isn't oily and doesn't show. It gives tone and vigor to the scalp. The generous bottles are just 35c at any drug store. A delicately fragranced toilet necessity for the well-groomed girl.—Adv.

Jubilee's Pardner

A Story of Boyhood Adventure

BY JUDD M. LEWIS

TOMORROW will be Friday. Me and Jubilee laid and thought about things a long time when we had woke up. After Friday comes Saturday and then we will grent our horseradish and sell it and make some spondulicks. Maybe everyone will buy all we have got and tell us to bring them some more, and we will make so much money that our fathers and mothers will let us stay out of school, and then we will build a factory, or maybe rent the space under the stink factory and buy horseradish and grind it up by the wagon load. When I got that far Jubilee got out of bed and I had to get out and let him down by the rope in his teeth for fear he might go downstairs and then my folks would know how the fleas get in my bed. Most of the bunch had got to our barn before I had got through milking the dummed brutes, and while I was feeding my face my father told me I better take the horses out for exercize tonight. That made the bunch feel good for they thought they would all get a ride.

When we got to school, Mush's wife was out walking around the schoolyard grinning like she had swallowed a feather because she thought me and Nibs had kissed her yesterday when Feeble pulled her hat down over her eyes. She said to us, "Did you boys like my new hat?" and I said, "Yes, did you set down on the pincushion the Lost Bag of Tripe hung on you?" and she said, "So that's how that got there!" and she fetched him a wallop that made his brains rattle, and just then the bell rang. I wonder what she thinks I am to kiss her. I told Feeble she would have to tell Mush's wife different, and Feeble said, "Why, I thought you kissed her." She gets too fresh.

When we got hope and led the horses out Annabelle Lee's scooter was out by the back step and Goop said to wait till he got a rope and he would ride the scooter. So me and Younies and Feeble and Hopper who is well again got on, and we tied the rope on the middle and Goop tied the other end on the scooter. I hollered at Goop to hold up his feet, and he held them away up in the air, and away we went. The scooter went sideways and every which way till we got to the gutter and it turned over and flopped him, but he held on it dragging on his stomanick till we got to the other gutter and then he let go.

He had went when we got home, my mother said I ought to be ashamed so I tried to look like I was ashamed, but I wasn't ashamed hardly [illegible]

Phillip Reveals His Secret

AT my disclosure of [illegible] which I feared was [illegible] Princess Olina of Transvania [illegible] Veritzen sprang to his feet.

"But this is terrible [illegible]

"To think that I have been kept in ignorance of danger near her! I will go to her at once."

There was such emotion in his voice, his face was so drawn in fear, that I wondered if the supposedly no-nonsense great man had been caught by the spell of Olina's beauty and charm, and the glamour of her place in the royal family of Transvania. I could think of no other explanation of his great concern, and to my disgust I found my vanity wincing at the conclusion.

I had my face for introspection, however. He already had started for the door, and I just had time to call him back before he reached it.

"Oh, but you mustn't do that!" I said. "She will think I have betrayed her confidence. Besides she is sure that Fedor is all the protection she needs. But I have arranged with Mrs. Tiver to keep the lights all burning at night, and Mrs. Underwood and I thought perhaps you could think of some plan to guard the house at night without her knowing anything about it. She has promised to tell me what is terrifying her before very long, and then we can form other plans."

He came slowly back to his chair, sank into it as if he suddenly were at the end of his strength.

"You are right," he said, "and you need trouble your head no more about The Larches being guarded. Tomorrow I shall have down some trusted men who will take turns watching it at night. And tonight, Otto will drive Noel and me down there and we shall take turns in patrolling the grounds. The kimonino will make a very comfortable resting place between watches."

His voice and manner were those of a man who sees his dearest possession threatened. I sat silent, sensing that for the moment he wished no sound to disturb him. It was but a few seconds, however, before he sat erect once more, and I saw that he had pulled himself together.

"What do you think of my plan?" he asked with the charming note of deference to my opinion which generally invests any question he puts to me.

"It appears faultless," I returned, feeling oddly that it was a distinct effort to reply to him at all.

He shot a keen glance at me, then settled back in his chair as if he meant to stay in it for some time.

"No doubt my intense anxiety concerning the princess must appear rather fantastic to you," he said, and as he waited for my reply I was conscious that he was watching me keenly.

"I haven't had time to give it any thought," I prevaricated, forcing a smile to my lips. "I have been to [illegible]

DISAGREEMENT ENDS SUNDAY SHOW TRIAL

Jury Dismissed; Report Vote Stood Seven to Five for Acquittal

later called for the bailiff, reporting that an agreement had not been reached and that it was ready to come out.

Judge Refuses

Judge Scofield however, refused to allow the jury to report. At approximately half hour intervals the bailiff was called and sent back to the judge with the same report.

At 4:30 o'clock, two hours and 30 minutes after the jury had retired from the courtroom, Judge Scofield instructed the bailiff to call the jury after again being notified that no decision had been reached.

In addressing the jury following its return from the jury room, Judge Scofield expressed his displeasure that a verdict had not been returned. "I am disappointed in you," he told the jurors. "This case is not so complicated that you could not have reached a decision." The jury was then dismissed to report Thursday morning when another case is to be heard.

With the jury "hung," the next step is up to the prosecuting attorney, Frank Wiedemann. Whether or not the city police will continue to arrest Sharpless for operating on Sunday is not known. Chief Thompson was noncommittal on the question this morning. According to circulated reports however, it is generally believed that there will be no more arrests.

Arrested Six Times

To date Sharpless has been arrested six times. The first four arrests, made on the first two Sundays on which shows were operated here, resulted in four indictments being returned against him by a special grand jury in Common Pleas Court. Following the report of the grand jury, Sharpless' bond was placed at $500 on each indictment. On the two arrests following the Grand Jury indictments, Sharpless waived preliminary examination in Municipal Court and again was bound over to the Grand Jury. It is still possible for indictments to be returned on these charges.

Word that the jury had discharged was flashed on the screen at the Grand Theater following the first show and at the beginning of the second show last night.

Sharpless said this morning that his theater would be open next Sunday. The schedule that has been observed since the Sunday opening will be followed, he said. The first show will be at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the second at 5:30 and the last at 9 o'clock at night.

Judge's Charge

Judge Scofield's charge to the jury contained merely the customary instructions. No particular reference was made to the Sharpless case. The prosecution attempted to prove only that Sharpless had broken the law which regulates the operation of theatrical performances on Sunday. Witnesses called by the state testified that they had attended or had been present at the Grand Theater when a show was being operated on Sunday.

Testimony of 25 witnesses called by the defense did not get in the court records. The witnesses were mainly owners or managers of other business enterprises in the city which operate on Sunday. Defense attorneys' questions put to their witnesses concerning the operation of their places on Sunday were objected to by the prosecution and the objections in each case were sustained by the court.

In a legal tilt, with the jury withdrawn, the court ruled that testimony concerning the operation of other places of business on Sunday was irrelevant to the case.

The defense attorneys attempted to show that the arrest of Sharpless for operation of Sunday motion picture shows was evidence of discrimination and denied him his constitutional rights.

Strelitz Plea

In his plea to the jury Attorney Strelitz pointed out that other places of business, such as cigar stores, shoe shining establishments, confectioneries, and gasoline stations were operating on Sunday, unmolested by city police. The arrest of Sharpless for operating a motion picture show on Sunday, he said, showed unjust discrimination and denied the defendant his constitutional rights.

Attorney Mouser, growing eloquent, went back into history, even into Biblical times and quoted scripture at length in his argument before the jurors.

The crowd that filled the courtroom was the largest to attend a trial here in years, it is said. Many spectators had filed into the courtroom before 9 o'clock, the time scheduled for the opening of the trial. Many were turned away when the seats became filled.

For an hour or more following the retirement of the jury there was no decrease in the size of the crowd in the courtroom and a small adjacent outer room. By 4 o'clock, however, the crowd had begun to disperse but a large number were waiting when the jury returned at 4:30.

ENJOYS A GOOD APPETITE SINCE TAKING KONJOLA

Free of Stomath Miseries For First Time in Many Months

MR. E. P. CLYDE

"I want to indorse Konjola because it is the only medicine in the world that has completely ended my stomach trouble," said Mr. E. P. Clyde, 424½ Verner St., Youngstown, Ohio.

"Since I completed a treatment of Konjola, I enjoy a good appetite all the time and I am entirely free of stomach miseries for the first time in many months. Before taking Konjola, I could never eat a meal without suffering all kinds of misery afterward. Everything I ate would ferment and turn sour. This caused belching up a hot, vile liquid that always left a bad taste in my mouth. I was subject to severe attacks of heartburn and would often become short of breath.

"I could notice an improvement all over my system soon after I started with Konjola. It was a real surprise to me, because after trying so many different remedies for relief, I didn't think this Konjola had much of a chance. Anyhow, it did everything claimed for it and I feel there are others who want to know this medicine. That's why I want to indorse it."

Konjola is different than any other known remedy in this section. It contains twenty-two juices extracted from natural plants which invigorate the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels to a more healthy action. The effect of Konjola on the entire system brings amazing relief in cases of suffering that had been going on for years. At the same time many weak and rundown systems have been restored to a new state of health through this compound. Such a vast number of men and women in this city have told of their experience with this new medical product until now Konjola is the most highly indorsed medicine that is known in this vicinity.

Konjola is strongly recommended here in Marion at Stump & Sams Pharmacy, and is also being sold by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this section.—Adv.

Feminine Bloc Urges Women Keep Sex Appeal Out of Politics to Win Honors

WASHINGTON, April 12 — Keep sex appeal out of politics if you want to win. That is the moral of the smashing Illinois victory of Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, as seen by members of the House "feminine bloc" today.

"Women should always campaign as persons—not women," said Mrs. Florence Kahn, Republican, of California. "I understand that's what Mrs. McCormick did.

"I have always refused to recognize sex in politics and I find that both men and women resent any other attitude. If Mrs. McCormick had appealed for support solely as a woman she probably would have lost."

MRS. KATHERINE LANGLEY, Republican of Kentucky, the newest addition to the feminine bloc in Congress, had the same view.

"It may be that back in the days when Jeanette Rankin of Montana was the first woman congressman that people voted for a woman because of her sex, but those days are past," said Mrs. Langley.

"My own campaign experience convinced me that women of the country are taking their suffrage seriously and that they may be just as severe on a woman candidate as on a man.

"It may be that women believe there should be some representation in official life of their sex because they think some feminine influence is beneficial, but I believe they generally vote for whoever they think will fill the position best."

WHILE Mrs. McCormick has a hard election fight between her primary victory and a seat in Congress, her victory caused many congressional tongues to wag over the possibility of women soon taking up a considerable number of the 435 seats in the Lower House.

Mrs. Kahn believes that women will win victories until the "feminine bloc of four is increased to 15 or 20 and then their victories will end.

"I do not believe that there ever will be anything like a majority of women in Congress," she said. She declined to say why.

Should Mrs. McCormick win the election she would be the eighth woman to win a seat in the Lower House, and the second from her own state of Illinois. But one woman has found a place in the Senate. She was Mrs. Rebecca Felton of Georgia, who was appointed to the post, and served but one day.

MAN LISTED FROM HERE IS ARRESTED

Angelo Domborra Held in Connection with Attack on Steubenville Officer

Angelo Domborra, 24, who gives Marion as his place of residence, is one of two men under arrest at Steubenville following an attack made last night on Police Lieutenant Scott Roe which is expected to result in his death.

Roe is reported to be in a dying condition at a Steubenville Hospital, his skull being fractured.

The man arrested with Domborra is listed as Frank Roman, 28, of Jersey City, N. J.

Police in Steubenville are attempting to learn the motive for the attack, which occurred at the annual ball of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Just as the officer reached the ballroom he was attacked, slugged and thrown down a flight of stairs by his two assailants. He was off duty and not in uniform.

Other officers pursued the lieutenant's attackers and arrested Domborra and Roman.

Domborra is not known to local authorities, it was stated at police headquarters today. His address here could not be learned.

middle of April. He told me he would be glad to consider a proposition."

Sinclair had actually signed a lease a week before this, on April 7.

Helms then returned to Fort Worth to confer with his company and prepare a bid. From the papers, however, he learned of the Sinclair lease. This was April 19 and he promptly wired not only Fall, but also President Harding in protest against the discrimination.

Other telegrams went to Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of War Weeks. Helms was demanding an interview with Harding.

Daugherty failed to answer; Weeks wired that for "good reasons" he couldn't do anything; Hoover replied he knew nothing about the matter, and George Christian, secretary to the president, wired that an appointment with Mr. Harding was impossible.

Fall answered, saying merely that "Teapot Dome closed; Salt Creek royalties still open."

Senator On Stand

Leslie A. Miller of the Aerial Oil Co. was the next witness. He said he learned of "the possibility" of leasing Teapot Dome on April 6, 1922. He promptly wired Senator Kendrick, Democrat of Wyoming, asking for information.

Through the newspapers Miller learned of the Sinclair lease on April 20.

Senator Kendrick took the stand.

Kendrick testified that upon receipt of Miller's wire he promptly sent his secretary to the Interior Department.

On April 10, Kendrick received a communication from H. Foster Bain, then chief of the Bureau of Mines, enclosing a press statement of April 9 stating "a policy is being rapidly developed" relative to Teapot Dome but "no contract has been let."

TANK EXPLODES

Man Probably Fatally Injured When Gas Fumes Ignite

Cincinnati, April 12—When Charles Cook struck a match to examine the label on a big gasoline tank at the Queen City Welding Co. plant here today the tank exploded, blowing out a side of the building and probably fatally injuring Edward O'Connor, 24.

The tank was of the sort used in shipping gasoline on railroad cars. It had been washed out with water, preparatory to repairing it, and was presumed empty. Gas fumes were still present, however, attendants believe and these were ignited by Cook's match.

Cook was uninjured but O'Connor was standing on the side of the tank which flew out. Considerable excitement and confusion followed the blast and no estimate of the damage was available. O'Connor, an inspector employed by the Underwriter's Laboratory, was taken to St. Mary's Hospital and is not expected to recover.

Anita Was Right

Blondes Predominate as Ashland College Picks Girls for Annual Spring Festival To Be Held on May 25

ASHLAND, April 12—Anita Loos was right!

And the Ashland College Spring Festival to be presented May 25 on the campus of the local school points conclusively to the fact that Ashland College men are gentlemen.

With Miss Marjorie Price of Nappanee, Ind. (top) elected to act as May Queen on this occasion and Miss Mary Botdorf of Sullivan, Ohio (left insert) in the role of Cinderella in the pageant, "The Crystal Slipper," which will form a part of the festival, it can be seen that the local school has a penchant for the well-known preferred variety. The Misses Price and Botdorf are blonde and blue-eyed.

The entire celebration is in charge of Miss Madeline Wensinger of Ashland (right insert)—more blue eyes. She has written the pageant which will be presented and will direct the work of the large number of students who will take part. Miss Wensinger is a senior at the local school; Miss price, a junior, and Miss Botdorf, a sophomore.

MUST GET BALANCE OF GUARANTY FUND

Local Committee Working on Pledge To Assure Chamberlin Visit

The $1,000 guaranty necessary to bring Clarence D. Chamberlin, transatlantic flier, to Marion has not all been underwritten, according to Charles Whysall, chairman of the aviation committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce under whose auspices the Aviator is to be brought here.

There remains several hundred dollars to be underwritten and until this sum is secured the contract for the appearance of the flier here can not be signed, Whysall said today. Under the plan by which the visit of the flier is being promoted, there is very little chance that guarantors will be called to make up any part of the cost, it is pointed out by the committee chairman.

Ticket Sale Plan

The plan of finance calls for the sale of 2,200 tickets for the lecture to be given at the Chautauqua pavilion. Tickets will go on sale next week. Five hundred seats will be reserved and will be sold at 75 cents each. The remainder will sell at 50 cents. Already requests for tickets from nearby towns and cities have come to the Junior Chamber committee.

Officers of the Junior Chamber anticipate little difficulty in filling the pavilion to capacity for the Chamberlin lecture, in which he will tell of his trip across the Atlantic.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce met last night with representatives of a number of Marion civic and fraternal organizations to discuss a number of questions relative to the aviation movement in Marion. One of the questions considered was finding a temporary landing field for Chamberlin's use on his visit here and for Army aviators who will likely fly here for the dedication of the Harding Memorial next summer.

Permanent Field Sought

The establishment of a permanent flying field for the city was also considered.

Members of organizations which have affiliated themselves with the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the establishment of an airport, who were present at the meeting are to report on last night's conference to their organizations. Another meeting of the entire group will be held April 25.

Organizations represented were the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis Club, Eagles Lodge, American Legion and the Central Labor Union.

A meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce aviation committee will be held in the office of Attorney C. H. Conley next Friday night.

MARION MAN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

William Bechtle and Companion Struck by Machine Near Bucyrus

William Bechtle, 28, of 438 Girard-av, is in Mennette Memorial Hospital, Bucyrus, recovering from injuries he sustained late Tuesday night when he and Cyril Lapp, 26, of Clarington, O., were struck by an automobile driven by Ernest Hoover, Wyandot-rd, at a point four miles south of Bucyrus.

Bechtle and Lapp were walking to their own disabled car, left standing on the side of the road, while they went to telephone for repair parts, when the machine struck them. Lapp was the most seriously injured of the two. Bechtle, whose injuries were only minor, will be removed home today or Friday.

Going to Bucyrus

Bechtle and Lapp were enroute to Bucyrus when their car developed a flat tire. Having no spare they drove the machine off the highway and proceeded by foot to the nearest farm home to telephone for an inner tube.

After making the call they were returning to their car to await delivery of the tire, when the machine driven by Mr. Hoover struck them from the rear, throwing them to the pavement. Both sustained cuts and bruises about their bodies and Lapp a strained knee cap. Hoover immediately stopped his car and took the two to the hospital. Bechtle was driving Lapp to Bucyrus, where, it was said, Lapp was to answer an ad for a farm hand.

Mayor Thompson Defendant in Case Started by Former Superintendent

Chicago, April 12—Suit for $250,000 libel against Mayor William Hale Thompson was filed in the Superior Court here today in behalf of former Superintendent of Schools William McAndrew.

McAndrew charges that Mayor Thompson, in his "war against England," maliciously attempted to destroy McAndrew's reputation for patriotism and as an educator.

WILLIS FORCES TO SUPPORT DAWES

Warner Outlines Program for Final Campaign Against Hoover

ties for the Willis slate of delegates and alternates.

Dawes is designated as the choice of the delegation in spite of the fact that he is not formally entered in the Ohio primary and is not an avowed candidate. It is generally conceded, however, that he is a receptive aspirant for the nomination and for that reason will receive substantial support in the opening ballots cast at the nominating convention.

Aside from the campaign planned by the Republican organization, there is expected to be little to arouse public interest during the remaining days of the pre-primary period.

Although there is no aggressive Hoover organization in the Eighth district, according to indications up to this time, evidence of activity in behalf of the cabinet member's candidacy developed today in an official announcement from state headquarters of the Hoover committee.

New Candidate

The announcement, which came from H. B. Hunt, Hoover chairman in Ohio, stated that Nelson G. Turner, Findlay merchant and president of the City Council there, will run as a Hoover candidate for delegate in the Eighth district. He takes the place of Frank Hoy, Findlay man who withdrew as a Hoover candidate several weeks ago and went over to the Willis ranks.

Hunt's announcement states that because there is no law for filling of vacancies after the original delegate lists have been made up it will be necessary for Hoover supporters in the Eighth district to write in the name of Turner and mark it with a cross.

Despite this handicap, Hunt asserts, Turner is confident the Hoover sentiment in the district is sufficiently strong to enable him to win out. Hunt declares that organizers who have been busy in the Eighth district during the last week report strong Hoover support.

Marion Man Entered

The other Hoover candidate for delegate, whose name will be printed on the ballot, is H. B. Hane, president of the Marion National Bank.

Political observers anticipate that a large percentage of the Republican vote will be cast, although probably less than would be registered with Senator Willis as the standard bearer.

There is no contest on the Democratic side and for that reason the primary vote for delegate candidates entered by that party is likely to be considerably smaller than the Republican total.

Arrangements for the primary have been practically completed by boards of election in all counties of the district. Plans here include registration of voters which will be held on April 21, the Saturday preceding primary day.

In addition to naming candidates for delegates and alternates to the national conventions, both parties will select lists of representatives to attend state conventions, when platforms will be drawn up and nominees endorsed.

Cole Makes Statement

That Dawes will get the support of the entire quota of Willis delegates from Ohio was indicated yesterday in a statement made by Ralph D. Cole of Findlay, one of the candidates for delegate from the Eighth district.

Cole said that he and 33 other Willis candidates for delegate would vote for Dawes "if and when the opportunity presented itself." The statement was made by Cole in Cleveland, where he addressed a Republican meeting.

A list of these Republican candidates for delegates and alternates whose names will appear on the ballot in the Eighth district follows:

Willis: For delegates, Ralph D. Cole, Findlay, and Benjamin R. Conner, Ada. For alternates, John H. Clark, Marion, and James R. Hopley, Bucyrus.

Hoover: For delegate, H. B. Hane, Marion. For alternates, V. W. Peck, Cardington and Fred C. Miller, Galion.

Almost Perfect Take-Off Made from Baldonnel Airfield

morning and arrive at Mitchel Field sometime tomorrow afternoon.

Previous to partaking of a hearty breakfast, Father O'Ariargan, chaplain at the airdrome, gave them Holy Communion.

Koehl was the first of the fliers to reach the plane. He carried a German flag. He took his seat in the cockpit.

Fitzmaurice, carrying an Irish flag, and Von Huenefeld followed in order.

The Bremen was accompanied to the coast by a small Napier plane carrying Captain Carrol and Lieutenant Russell of the Irish Free State Air Force.

Take-off Perfect

The Fliers' food supply consisted of many sandwiches and strong coffee and beef tea.

Officials at the field declared that on no previous flight attempt from Baldonnel had conditions been more perfect.

While the plane's engine roared steadily, the Irish tri-color broke out alongside the German flag as the plane disappeared.

Koehl made his decision to take the northern route because of reports of bad weather centering to the southward. He stated that he expected the plane would average 90 miles an hour.

Fitzmaurice's wife was at the field to bid him goodbye.

The Bremen, a low-winged, all-metal, single-motored monoplane, is a standard Junker model. It has a wing spread of 58 feet three inches and an overall length of 34 feet, five inches. It stands nine feet, six inches high.

123-Mile Speed

It is capable of a top speed of 123 miles an hour. Its cruising speed is about 97 miles an hour. Adverse flying conditions will, of course, reduce this speed.

The plane is carrying more than 600 gallons of gasoline sufficient to keep it aloft about 46 hours. The fuel being used is a specially prepared benzol-charge protel of high volatility.

The plane's motor is said to be capable of developing 310-horsepower. It is the same type of motor as that used by the German aviators who set the endurance record of 52 hours and 23 minutes which was recently broken by Stinson and Haldeman in the flight over Jacksonville, Fla.

The plane carries no radio equipment.

Fitzmaurice will spell Koehl every few hours on the flight. Von Huenefeld will man the gas pumps and keep a log of the flight.

ADA TELEPHONE SERVICE RESTORED AFTER STORM

Ada, April 12—Long distance telephone service between this seat of Ohio Northern University and the outside world was reestablished today for the first time since March 30, when telephone service in northwestern Ohio was crippled by high winds.

Long distance service was also reestablished at Dunkirk, but Alger is still without outside telephone communication.

HENRY F. BARNHART LOCATES IN LIMA

Local Man Becomes Assistant Sales Manager of Ohio Power Shovel Co.

Henry F. Barnhart, formerly connected with the sales department of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., has resigned his position here to become assistant sales manager of the Ohio Power Shovel Co. at Lima, it was announced today.

He is now located in Lima and has taken charge of his new duties. His appointment came from Grant Davis, sales manager of the Lima company and former advertising manager of the Marion Steam Shovel Co.

Mr. Barnhart, whose home is at 343 S. State-st, was in the Marion Steam Shovel Company's employ two years. He is a grandson of Henry Barnhart, inventor of the Marion Shovel and one of the company's founders.

DANDRUFF
Soon Destroys the Hair

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

LOOKS LIKE CIRCUS CROWD

After Three Doctors Gave Him Up, Sykodoner Puts Well-Known Farmer On Feet Again

The Sensation of the Day

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I hardly know how to express my newfound joy and happiness. I have lived on the same farm, near Green Camp, Ohio, for 46 years—within two miles of where I was born, 68 years ago. Until about a week ago, I looked and felt more like eighty. Now I look and feel, at least, many years younger—and all because of what the wonderful Sykodoner did for me, in so short a time. It is simply marvelous. Why, I had suffered, more or less, for thirty years, and took enough medicine to start a young drug-store, only to become worse as I grew older. I could no longer do my farm work—not even walk ten rods to the barn. My dear old wife had to do the chores during the severe cold weather, until kind neighbors attended to that—thank the good Lord. I suffered something terribly—no one else can even realize what I endured. I suffered with pain, almost all over my entire body, and especially in the left side, kidneys, arms, neck, and almost choked to death. The doctor "shot" narcotics into my veins, every day or night, for almost a week. He finally told me that he could do nothing more for me. Now what was I to do? That was the all important question. I was in despair. My stomach was so acid I took almost five pounds of baking soda. For weeks I could barely sleep. I grew worse from day to day. All hope was gone, and I resigned myself to the hands of God. Like a message from heaven, my attention was finally called to the famous Sykodoner—the wonderful new treatment which is creating so much excitement in Marion, now. I lost no time in getting to the Sykodoner Man. Well, that same night I slept sound as a log, and ever since. I awoke with all pain and suffering gone; and hushed corn all that day. Two days later I helped my neighbor butcher hogs, and was not even tired that night. Now can you imagine anything so wonderfully delightful to a sick and discouraged sufferer? I think not! My joy has no bounds. I am making this statement voluntarily—was not solicited; for I feel it my moral duty toward my God and my fellowmen, that this grand and glorious Sykodoner work be made known to all. Why, I feel like shouting it from the very housetops. Anyone wishing to know more about what this marvelous discovery has done for me, will please not hesitate to ask me."

LEVINE SUIT NEAR SETTLEMENT, CLAIM

Figure of $150,000 Virtually Decided Upon; Justice Department Has Check

Washington, April 12—Settlement of the government's claim of $500,000 against Charles E. Levine, transatlantic flier and aircraft manufacturer, for $150,000 virtually has been arranged it was learned today.

Levine's check for $150,000 is in the hands of the Department of Justice, but has not as yet been finally accepted. Both the government and Levine's attorneys have agreed on the amount but some legal details of the contract, which must be signed, have not been worked out.

Officials said that as the differences are minor the controversy probably would be adjusted and a final settlement reached within a short time.

The claim against Levine arose from a surplus war material contract. The question was raised as to whether the government or Levine should pay certain freight charges, and as to the use to which the materials were put by the purchaser.

FIREMAN KILLED

Gasoline Tank Explodes During Collision of Auto and Engine

Steubenville, April 12—J. W. Ivanford, 40, Navarre, Wheeling and Lake Erie fireman, is dead today as the result of a collision between an auto truck and the engine on which Dunford was fireman, at Tiltonville, late yesterday.

Joseph Moffatt, Steubenville, driver of the truck, was removed to the Martins Ferry Hospital, with serious injuries.

Dunford leaped or was thrown from the engine, when the gasoline tank of the wrecked motor truck exploded, and sustained a fractured skull when his head struck a tie.

More d.p.m. means faster, better housecleaning

BECAUSE The Hoover has proved—in over a hundred comparative tests—its ability to remove more d.p.m. (dirt per minute) than any other cleaner, it offers you housecleaning aid that is unmatched.

Because it removes more dirt per minute from rugs and carpets, it saves your time, saves your efforts and saves your rugs. It does this because its exclusive cleaning principle, "Positive Agitation," gets dirt that ordinary cleaning methods fail to reach—the heavy, cutting grit which sinks deep into the rug fabric and clings persistently. "Positive Agitation" dislodges this deeply-embedded dirt and vibrates it to the surface to be suctioned away.

With the removal of this most destructive dirt of all, your rugs are not only more beautiful in their complete cleanliness but they last longer. Why not have the help of The Hoover, not only to make your rugs look young and lovely at housecleaning time, but to keep them so all the time.

The Hoover is easy to own; only $6.25 down and a few monthly payments make it yours. Liberal allowance for your old cleaner. Two models to choose from—the de luxe Model 700 and the new popular-priced Hoover. Let us give you a demonstration in your home. Telephone.

Pyorrhea Checked New, Safe Way!

Every year this insidious disease exacts its deadly toll from millions of victims. Every year, thousands endure untold torture in the dental chair, seeking to avoid the penalties of neglect. But NOW—all this needless suffering is a thing of the past. Science has made an amazing discovery that combats pyorrhea quickly, safely and without pain.

OIL-of-SALT has a unique healing effect on mouth tissues. It quickly checks bleeding of gums. Hardens soft, sore, spongy places almost like magic. Non-irritating and non-poisonous. Doesn't even taste bad. Kills bacteria without smarting or discomfort. Its action is always gentle and soothing—swift and SAFE!

If your gums are the least bit sore, or if your toothbrush "shows pink", heed nature's warning at once. Delay is highly dangerous. Ask your druggist for the handy, 60c bottle of OIL-of-SALT today.

MRS. ANNA GOSS, 93, DIES AT HOME HERE

One of Marion's Oldest Residents Succumbs to Pneumonia

Mrs. Anna Goss, 93, native of Ireland, and one of Marion's oldest residents, died at 7:30 o'clock last night at her home, 347 Blaine-av, after a short illness of pneumonia and a complication of diseases.

The funeral will be held at St Mary's Catholic Church at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in charge of Rev. F. X. Cotter, pastor. Interment will be in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Goss was born May 25, 1834 at County Limerick, Ireland. She came to this country at the age of 16 and was married at Freeport, N. J., to Fenton Goss, moving to Ohio shortly afterward. She has for the past 36 years been a resident of Marion and Marion County. She was a member of the Altar Society of St. Mary's Church. Mr. Goss preceded her in death 32 years ago.

Surviving her are six daughters: Mrs. James Bush, 254 Orchard-st, Mrs. Theodore Ochs, 214 E. Church-st, Misses Ella, Sue, Etta and Anna Goss, at home, two sons, W. F. and M. C. Goss, at home, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

4 Yrs. Gastritis and Stomach Misery Gone

"For four years I suffered with gas, bloating and belching. Was in misery all the time. Nothing helped me. I took Adlerika."—W. Taylor.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel; most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisoned the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition, Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause neuritis, rheumatism, etc.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

It will astonish you the great amounts of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful of Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists.—Adv.

Employment on Increase in Building Work Here, Labor Organization Heads Report

Construction Activities Providing More Work; Announcement Is Made at Meeting of Marion Central Labor Union

Reports showing that construction work is on the increase in Marion and that employment conditions in the building crafts are improving as a result were received by the Marion Central Labor Union at its regular meeting held in Labor Hall, S. Main and Church-sts, last night.

Announcement of the decrease in unemployment came from representatives of the Carpenters and Bricklayers Union.

The Central Labor Union also discussed plans for assisting the Marion Real Estate Board in its campaign to eliminate unsightly conditions existing at various points in the city. The realtors have proposed to have billboards erected to cover up a number of these community eyesores.

Pictures Exhibited

Several pictures of such places were exhibited to members of the labor organization. The photograph views were sent to the meeting by R. T. Lewis, president of the realtors' organization.

The labor organization also went on record as being in favor of a public health program which would "keep the city clean throughout the year instead of having one clean-up in the spring and then forgetting about it."

In accordance with its policy of cooperating with local business interests, the Central Labor Union this week issued a letter addressed to merchants warning them against solicitors seeking money subscriptions for so-called timebooks and labor papers. Many of these propositions, it was announced at last night's meeting, are fakes, the money going to out-of-town promoters.

An invitation to attend services at Community Church on Herman-st, east of Davids-st, Sunday, April 15, to hear a labor sermon to be delivered by Rev. Frank P. George was accepted at last night's meeting. The Central Union members will attend in a body, seats having been reserved for them. Reverend George will base as his subject, "A Laborer Is Worthy of His Hire." The service will start at 7:30 p. m.

Court Ruling Reported

It was announced that the New York Supreme Court recently handed down a decision of great interest to all union labor men when it ruled that the "yellow dog" contracts of employment are "inequitable" and "non-enforceable."

The court said that contracts between the Interborough Rapid Transit Co. and its employes, binding the latter not to join any but the company union, are invalid.

A bill introduced in the Ohio legislature, declaring such contracts null and void, and which was defeated in the last legislative session, will be reintroduced, members of the local labor organization were informed last night.

MEMBERS OF AID GROUP HOLD ALL-DAY MEETING

DeCliff, April 12—Mrs. William Holden was hostess to the Ladies' Aid Society at an all-day meeting Wednesday. The forenoon was spent in knotting comforters and at the noon hour a cafeteria dinner was served followed by a business meeting. Prayer was offered by Mrs. W. L. Morral and a piano solo was contributed by Mrs. Rosa Woodbury. Those present were Mrs. William Tron, Mrs. Frank Montgomery and son, Francis, Mrs. Otto Roux, Mrs. G. G. Miller, Mrs. Rose Moberly, Mrs. A. R. Landen, Mrs. J. A. Randall, Mrs. Don Clements, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. George Stansfield, Mrs. Arnold Miller, Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Rosa Woodbury, Mrs. Lulu Miller, Misses Ellamae and Martha Holden, Mrs. W. L. This week we are celebrating a very important day for us. April 14th is our birthday and we shall be 26 years old.

Many changes have taken place since Our Founder started a small general store in Wyoming. We have seen the passing of old styles and the advent of the new. Storekeeping methods have improved and we have grown to a lusty height of 954 stores. But the friendly smile and the desire to give helpful service never vary. The same old latchstring of WELCOME hangs outside our door for both customer and curious passerby.

Twenty-six years ago we started life as a "Friendly Store." We don't believe the years have changed us a bit. What do you think about it?

Higher Land Values Assured by Amended Farm Bill, Truax Says

GIVES KIWANIS CLUB ADDRESS

Agriculture Official Discusses Farm Measure at Kenton Meeting

Kenton, April 12—With the adoption of the amendment yesterday in the United States Senate, increasing the export debenture of the McNary-Haugen bill from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000, passage of the amended bill is practically assured. As soon as the bill becomes a law, land values will advance and restored confidence in the future of agriculture," said Charles W. Truax, director of agriculture, addressing the Kiwanis Club here today.

The organization fee is sound as the basic principle of government itself and of all business. That principle is that all those benefiting from the sale of agricultural commodities shall bear their proportionate share of the cost of operation and also the proportionate share of any loss that may be sustained," Truax said.

30 DAYS GIVEN FOR OBJECTIONS TO RATES

State Commission Acts in Controversy Over Bucyrus Phone Charges

Bucyrus, April 12—Bucyrus and Crawford County officials, charged by the State Utilities Commission, with "Apparently trying to 'pass the buck,' have 30 days in which to file their objections to the order issued late yesterday by the commission, permitting the Bucyrus Telephone Company to increase its rates for service in the Bucyrus area. City Solicitor Miller, of Bucyrus, is of the opinion that no action will be taken, it was learned today.

Increase Authorized

The Telephone Company is authorized to make the following increase: on individual business phones, $1.50 per month; P. B. X. trunks, $2.50; for individual residences phones $1.00 and four-party residence phones, 50 cents per month.

Acting upon protests filed by the city solicitor of Bucyrus and the prosecuting attorney of Crawford County, the commission first suspended the increased rate schedule, which was originally intended to become effective on July 1, 1926, and then conducted a hearing Sept. 14, 1926.

Pending final disposition of the case, the commission permitted the company to collect the increased rates under bond filed with the commission.

In its order, the commission today announced that it has closed its inquiry and has relieved the Bucyrus Telephone Co. from further responsibility under its bond.

CHURCH WOMEN MEET IN GALION

Missionary Societies of District Holding Annual Convention

Galion, April 12—The fourth annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Societies of the Central Ohio Classis of the Ohio Synod opened at the First Reformed Church yesterday morning, when members of the executive board held a preliminary business session. Delegates from Marion, Prospect, Upper Sandusky Canal Winchester, Basil, Columbus, Sugar Creek, Delaware, Bucyrus, Crestline, Stoutsville, Thornville, Glenford and Sycamore were present at the meetings which followed.

Mrs. William Huber of Crestline had charge of the opening devotionals and Miss Ollie Brick of Galion, organizer of the local society, gave the welcome address. The response was by Mrs. E. D. Ewing, of Delaware. The afternoon session as given over to the chairman of various committees and reports of the work of the last year were submitted by representatives of the many organizations.

Banquet Given

The Girls' Missionary Guild entertained the women's missionary groups at a banquet which was served in the church basement by a committee from the Dorcas Society of the church. Miss Hulda Klopp was in charge of the affair and as a feature an interesting debate, "Foreign versus Home Missions," was enjoyed with Marguerite Conklin of Marion and Helen Seebach of Upper Sandusky as the principal speakers.

The program was opened last night by Kenneth Rensch, organist and Eugene DeSilets, pianist, who played "Grand Aria" by Demarest. Mrs. Chester Alspach was in charge of the devotionals. As special program numbers Miss Naomi Tracht, soprano, sang two selections, "Life," by Pearl Curran and "Sunshine" by John Wolf, accompanied by Mrs. Edgar Beall, while Miriam Sayre gave a reading. The address of the occasion was given by Mrs. Paul Keller, a returned missionary from China, whose topic was "New Movements in China."

The convention will close today with the annual election of officers and closing communion services.

GETS REFORMATORY TERM FOR ROBBERY

Shelby Man Is Sentenced Following Indictment at Bucyrus

Bucyrus, April 12—Indicted for robbery of the Frye restaurant at Crestline, and for operating a vehicle without the owner's consent, William Harding of Shelby has been sentenced in Court of Common Pleas to the Mansfield reformatory from 10 to 20 years. He entered a plea of guilty.

The case of William Rose of Crestline indicted on a third offense liquor charge, who pleaded guilty, was taken under advisement by Judge Walter Wright.

Indicted on shooting his wife with intent to kill, and with intent to wound, John Hams entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was fixed at $5,000.

Arrested and indicted for stealing auto parts at Galion, Chester Dewald of Galion was returned to the county jail when he failed to give the bond of $500.

An extension of time to make his plea was granted C. W. Crasper, who was arrested here on the charge of issuing bad checks. He failed to give bond of $1,000.

WRIT IS ASKED

Couple Wed 60 Years

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Titus Celebrate Anniversary with Family Dinner at Home in Morral; Wed in Kansas

A family dinner marked the observance of the sixtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Titus, which was celebrated Sunday at the Titus home in Morral. Celebrating the day with Mr. and Mrs. Titus were their children, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown, of near Meeker; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Will Titus, of Marion; Miss Minnie Titus, of Morral; their grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, of near Meeker, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Mahaffey, of Morral, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown and Clarence Brown, of near Meeker, and Hoyt Thompson, of Marion, and their great-grandchildren Lucile Miller, Helen Louise Mahaffey and Donald Mahaffey. Two sons, Frank Titus, of Oakland, Cal., and E. B. Titus, Jr., of Elkville, Ill., and a daughter Mrs. Robert McCormick, of Mansfield, were unable to attend the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Titus received a number of remembrances and congratulatory messages and flowers from their host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Titus were married April 5, 1868, in Troy, Doniphan Co., Kansas, and Oct. 5, 1871, moved to this county. They have been residents of the county since that time with the exception of three years spent in Kentucky where Mr. Titus was engaged in the lumber business. In 1887 Mr. and Mrs. Titus purchased a farm west of Meeker, on which they resided until 10 years ago when Mr. Titus retired and the family moved to Morral.

Mr. Titus is 82 years of age and Mrs. Titus is 80. Both have excellent memories and are actively interested in the events of the day. Mrs. Titus before her marriage was Miss Mary Elizabeth Mullins.

"Two Live as Cheap as One" The Bunk, Students Opine

Marion Star Bureau
Ohio State University

COLUMBUS, April 12—An opinion that student marriages are detrimental to the youthful participants in matrimony is popular among men students of Ohio State University, a recent survey of the university campus has revealed.

In spite of the fact that there are a large number of married student couples at the Buckeye School, records show that a very small per cent of the ceremonies have been performed while the students, united by the marriage bond, were enrolled in the university.

Two of the most prevalent objections to such marriages, according to the survey, are that first, financially the average student is unable to keep a wife, and second, that he is narrowing his future considerably by acquiring one. That the support of a wife is quite a burden to carry along with the student's studies and university expenses is the belief expressed by practically every one of the men students questioned in the survey.

A few of the questioned students, however, believed that it is an advantage and an incentive to a student to begin his married life while still in school. If he is capable and energetic, they argue, he will fare as well as his unmarried classmate. They also maintain in the survey that marriage places the individual student in a position in which he must realize his responsibility.

SOCIETY MEETS

Program Is Presented by Members of Missionary Group

Nevada, April 12 — The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church, held a regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Mahley.

Miss Mary Zulauf conducted the devotionals. The 46th psalm was read responsively. "The Word for the World," was the theme of the Scripture lesson. Miss Zulauf was also leader of the lesson, with the general topic, "Story of Missions." A very interesting discussion of the topic for the day, "The Age of the Book," was given by the members. "What the Reformation Means for Missions," and "Halle, the Mother of Missions," were read by the leader.

The business session followed, conducted by the president, Mrs. Edith Aten, with a roll call of the members. The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clymina Markley.

DIES IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Inez Earle, Former Local Resident, Passes Away

Word was received here today of the death of Mrs. Inez Rimel Earle, 40, a former Marion woman, yesterday morning in a Chicago hospital. She had been ill nearly a year. The body will probably be brought to Marion for burial.

Mrs. Earle was the daughter of John and Margaret Rimel, who formerly resided on the Garden City-pk. Her father and husband preceded her in death. Surviving her are her mother, a daughter, Ruth, a son, Robert, and a sister, Mrs. Nelle Bauchart, all residing in Chicago.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO PRESENT PLAYS

Members at Work on Productions To Be Given This Month

Galion, April 12—Twenty members of the Drama Workshop Players will have part in the final production of the year, a program of three one-act plays, which is scheduled for presentation late this month. During the season the group has given three full length plays and as a novel finale the three plays of contrasting types will be given. Paul E. Randall is directing the plays and committees have begun work on stage specialties.

A comedy, "Sauce for the Goslings," will open the program and Elizabeth Bland, Grace Deibig, Marjorie Mosier-well Gledhill, Glenn Kerschner, Robert Yochem and Robert Phipps will be the featured players.

A drama, "The Conflict," will have as its characters Ethel Bracht, Angeline Yochem and Geraldine Heiby.

"Six Who Pass While the Lentils Boil," has been chosen especially because of its appeal to children. This lovely fantasy will be beautifully costumed and staged with regard for every detail. Ava Swarts, Helen Spiggle, Harriet Wisterman, Hazel Garverick, Franklin Craun, George Wiener, Rufus Eckstien, Gerald Everly, Carl Schultz and Arnold Mecker are members of the group who will interpret the fanciful roles.

Rookies Grab Share Of Honors As Ball Season Starts

ANDY COHEN'S THREE BINGLES GIVE GIANTS JUMP OVER HORNSBY

Sojourn of Boston Red Sox First Place Cut Short by Senators

New York, April 12—As the excitement of opening day wore off, the two pennant races simmered down today to the prosaic level of routine business.

Rookies grabbed a large share of the spotlight in the various inaugurals. Andy Cohen stepped into Rogers Hornsby's shoe on the New York Giants and found them too small, for his three hits gave the Giants a 5 to 2 victory over Hornsby and his fellow Braves. Arthur Whitney, Rookie third baseman from New Orleans, knocked in two runs as the Phillies downed Brooklyn, 4 to 3. Other recruits who performed brilliantly were Chalmers Cissell, White Sox shortstop; Freddy Maguire, Cubs' second baseman, who hit a home run; Purdy of the Reds; Roettger of the Cardinals and Morgan of Cleveland.

The world's champion Yankees, determined to stay in first place every day of the season for the second year in succession, routed Lefty Grove and beat the Athletics, 8 to 3.

Cards, Pirates Sock 'Em

Thirty-one base hits rent the ozone as the Cardinals took a 14 to 7 slugfest from the Pirates. Frisch and Bottomley each got three hits, including a homer.

Adolfo Luque, Cincinnati mound ace, tamed the Cubs, 5 to 1.

George Uhle, the Cleveland pitcher who makes a good record every other season, apparently is in for a winning campaign. He beat the White Sox, 8 to 2.

George Moriarty, Detroit manager, spent the afternoon wondering why he traded Heinie Manush to the St. Louis Browns. The former batting king scored two runs as the reconstructed Brownies trounced the Tigers 4 to 1. Sam Gray, who twirled for St. Louis, displayed the form which once made him the ace of the Philadelphia staff.

The sojourn of the Boston Red Sox in first place in the American League standing was sweet but short. Four of Sox pitchers issued 10 passes and the back bay boys lost to Washington, 8 to 4. Ken Williams got three hits including a home run.

Philadelphia's victory over Brooklyn marked the Robin's first defeat on opening day in eight years.

SIGNS FOR 1929

Gene Tunney Will Fight For Rickard Next Year

Miami Beach, Fla., April 11—Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion of the world, has signed a contract with Tex Rickard giving the promoter control of his fighting services during 1929, he announced here today.

The contract has a clause in it which calls for one more fight for Gene during the remainder of 1928, the one scheduled with Heeney, and makes it plain that the terms are contingent upon Tunney retaining the title in 1929.

POOR HEALTH IS NOT CAUSE OF DEMPSEY'S AVOWED RETIREMENT

Jack Leaves Many Loose Strings After Visit in New York

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, April 12—Some of our best people were not at all certain today whether they had been taken for an airy ride by Jack Dempsey's reaffirmed retirement of yesterday or actually had been admitted to the inner shrine of the great man's confidence but on one point they were in marked unison. From Leo P. Flynn down—or up, as the case may be—they were convinced that ill health has nothing to do with Dempsey's expressed desire to withdraw himself from circulation.

They know this to be so because one glance at the man was sufficient to confirm the suspicion that ill health and Jack Dempsey was irreconcilably estranged.

"All he needs for a man like Risko or Heeney is a good, brisk shower," was Flynn's judgment and, if Leo spoke as a manager, he did so merely for practice, since it was understood he was managing somebody who only a few minutes before had tacitly declared himself beyond all managerial aid. Still, absolute consistency is pretty much of a prize fight liability, as witness the storm of pessimism that greeted Dempsey a year ago because he avowed he wished to come back and the down right optimism with which they viewed him yesterday after he had declared himself out of the portrait for good or otherwise.

Scoffers Exceed Believers

But, why talk of Risko and Heeney in connection with a man who insists he has retired? The answer is that the scoffers still exceed the true believers and probably will continue to do so until such time as Dempsey's actions cease to leave their purport open to doubt. For example, his declarations of good faith yesterday were followed by these seeming contradictions:

He made an engagement through Jess McMahon to confer with Rickard here on Sunday. The Garden being closed, the choice of Sunday speaks for strict privacy and the boys want to know what a couple of old friends, meeting to pass the time of day, want with privacy.

He allowed himself to be taken off guard long enough to explain that the local commission's action in barring him from an immediate meeting with Tunney was all right with him because he would want a tune-up fight before another bout with Tunney, anyhow.

He refused to sign a statement, that he was out of the ring for good.

He virtually admitted his story about bad eyesight was fabrication.

Jack Dempsey leaves too many loose ends lying around after he is finished with his oral surgery. They may mean nothing beyond the fact that the man isn't capable of making a perfectly good story ring with conviction. He says he is out and he ought to know. And, that being the case, maybe all of us had better take his word for it, just to save further annoyance.

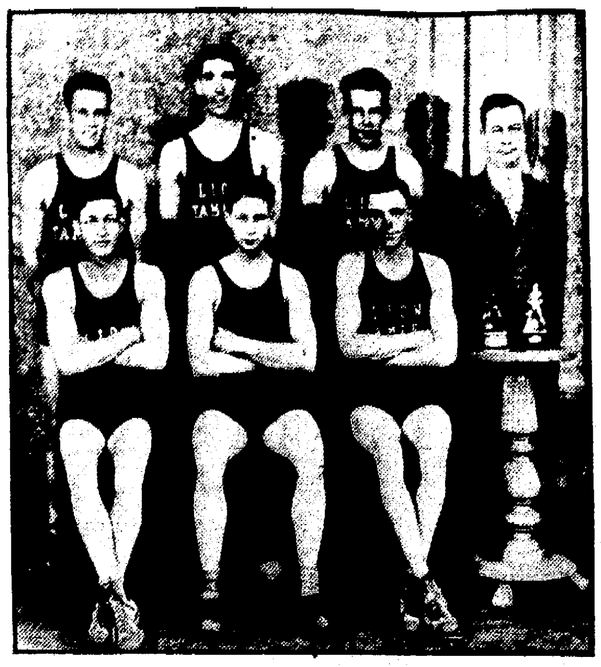
LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

At Kansas City—Battling Levinsky, Philadelphia, drew with Tiny Roebuck, Indian heavyweight, (10).

At East St. Louis, Ill.—Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis, knocked out Soldier Buck, Louisville, Ky. (2).

At New York—Jack Smith, former catcher of the New York Yankees, drew with Pietro Corri (6).

CHAMPIONS OF MARION COUNTY.



For two consecutive years the Martel Lion Tamers have won the championship of Marion County by winning the amateur tournament held at the Y. M. C. A. under the direction of F. O. Rudolph, athletic director.

The Lion Tamers are a consistent winning team that has been playing for a number of years. In addition to capturing the championship of this county they have been winning year after year from the title holders of Crawford County. In the last two years the Martel crew has lost but seven games out of 45 played. Most of the team's contests are scheduled on foreign floors.

MARMON ENTERS TWO SPECIAL BUILT CARS IN SPEEDWAY EVENT

Racers Will Be of Front Wheel Drive Type Driven by Cooper

Indianapolis, Ind., April 12—Marmon, winner of the first International 500-mile race, returns to the speedway with two special racing cars entered in the Sixteenth International 500-mile race to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway May 30, it was announced here today by the speedway management.

Earl Cooper, veteran racing car builder and driver, is the team captain of the new squadron.

The cars, which have been under construction in the Marmon factory here will be ready for the track within a few days, it was announced.

They are of front wheel design, a radical change from the conventional passenger car of today. Power is transmitted directly from the motor to the front wheels instead of driving the power all the way back to the rear wheels, the custom since the invention of the horseless carriage.

When the first 500-mile race was run here in 1911, Ray Harroun, driving the Marmon Wasp, "Number 32", came home a winner at the astonishing speed average of 74.59 miles an hour. It was considered the greatest feat of the automotive industry, the car making but five stops and all of these for water, fuel and tires.

The 1911 Marmon had a piston displacement of 447.1 cubic inches and was of six cylinder design, compared with the tiny 91 1-2 cubic inches piston displacement eight cylinder power plant in the new Marmon Specials.

STOCK TICKERS BEHIND ORDERS

Irregularities and Confusion Continues To Attend Trading on Big Board

Markets at a Glance

New York, April 12—Railroad stocks, firm; industrial stocks, irregular; domestic bonds, firm; foreign bonds, firm; call money, 5 1-2 per cent; grain, steady; copper, firm; oil, steady; cotton, steady; rubber, firm; sugar steady; pig iron, steady; foreign exchange, irregular.

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

New York, April 12—Trading on the big board today was attended with the irregularities and confusion that have characterized the three preceding sessions. A wild "bullish drive" at the opening pushed forward a few of the speculative stock leaders to new high prices, but almost immediately a selling movement was inaugurated which swept prices steadily downward.

Stock sales in the first three hours aggregated nearly 5,000,000, but, with the ticker at least 40 minutes behind the market, it was evident that the real total was considerably higher, and from all appearances the market was in a fair way to reach the 5,000,000-share total so frequently forecasted in recent weeks. Tardiness in the ticker service for purely mechanical causes was a factor in the partial breaking down of the stock sales reports, the ticker at midday standing still for brief periods while delay piled up.

The expected decline in call money, first to 5 1-2 per cent and then to five per cent stimulated a considerable amount of outside speculative buying.

From reports submitted this week by the leading steel manufacturers, it is believed that net earnings for the first quarter of 1928, will be above expectations. U. S. Steel is expected to earn $40,000,000 against $31,247,000 in the final quarter of 1927, and Bethlehem $1 a share against 37 cents.

TODAY'S REVIEW OF YESTERDAY'S MARKET

Chicago, April 11—The government crop report was the yeast that brewed strong bull markets in wheat and rye yesterday. Wheat went up like a volunteer fireman climbing a ladder to a blazing building. It jumped at the start 2 to 2½c. After that it climbed slowly, but with determination.

At the end wheat was up 4⅜@5¼c; corn was 1⅝@2c higher; oats were ½@¾c better, and rye was up 2@4¼c.

The action of the wheat market was unique for so large an upturn. There was none of the flurry and hustle about it that usually prevails in an advance of such proportions. The market went ahead without excitement in businesslike fashion, as a man might mark a ballot.

Doubters concerning the extent of the damage to the Winter wheat crop were being slowly convinced that it is a calamitous as prices rose. This is the important factor in a market. What the real condition is does not make so much difference as what traders think it is.

Say $1.65 for Wheat

After the close predictions that May wheat will sell at $1.65 were common enough. They might have carried more weight if some of the prognosticators had not been persons who some time ago when wheat was much lower predicted that it would sell at $1.10.

The government report for Kansas said that the condition of Winter wheat there had improved 2 per cent since December 1. Records of the past ten years show that in the five years when the condition improved from December 1 to April 1 the state produced above the average crop.

Corn may have been neglected of late in the eagerness to buy wheat. That market looks to this writer to be in a very strong position independently.

Strength in wheat is pretty certain to help the corn market. It is hardly to be supposed that wheat can climb up to giddy heights and corn go down into the basement. Nevertheless, this is the kind of spread a good many professionals are playing. They are long wheat and short corn.

Corn Looks Sound

Under such circumstances corn looks like a reasonably safe purchase until shorts in it have covered. As a result of the market condition in corn it would seem as if it might not follow a break in wheat, as in such an event it would get support from spreaders who sold out their long wheat.

Oats, supposed by many grain men to be in the most bullish position on the board, show little of the Spring awakening that has aroused the other cereals. Trade, perhaps, is too restricted in this grain to force the futures to follow cash prices upward at present.

Rye continues to show the strength that underlies the situation in that grain. On paper it appears as if there might be some difficulty before the last of July in finding enough rye to go round to those who want it. Foreign demand is the big factor in this grain.

In the cash market wheat was 2 to 3 up; corn, unchanged to 1 up; oats 1-2 to 1 up; rye, firm; barley, steady.

Today in Marion Markets

Groceries, Produce, Meats, Grain, Livestock

With the appearance of Alabama berries on the market the first time this season strawberries today were being quoted at 40 cents a quart, the lowest price reached thus far this year. The quality is exceptionally good and dealers were carrying fairly large supplies. The unusually large shipments from Louisiana growers predicted by dealers have not materialized as yet.

Dealers were also featuring Texas sweet onions today, the first of the season, at 12 cents a pound. Practically all seasonable vegetables were plentiful. New potatoes were holding at four pounds for 25 cents while old varieties were being quoted at 35 cents a peck. No immediate drop in old potatoes is being promised by dealers.

Peas and Beans Plentiful

Peas and green beans were plentiful today, but were moving slow at 50 cents a pound. Asparagus was being offered at 15 cents a bunch or two bunches for 25 cents. With new cabbage holding at eight cents a pound, old stock is supplying a large part of the demand at five cents.

Banana sworn not so plentiful today. Dealers were carrying only fairly large supplies selling at three pounds for 25 cents. Tangerines have practically disappeared from the market, the few on hand selling at 60 cents. Oranges are holding at from 14 for 25 cents to from 25 to 65 cents a dozen. Apples continue plentiful and dealers report heavy sales at from $2 to $3.50 a bushel.

Retail meat dealers report buying about normal with prices steady. Pork products have shown little inclination to advance.

DATE FOR CONTRACT LETTING IS CHANGED

Action on Harding Memorial-blvd Project Set for Next Tuesday

The date for the awarding of the contracts for the Harding Memorial paving has been changed from next Monday, as announced yesterday, to next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. In connection with the letting of the contracts will be a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, city officials, and interested property owners. The meeting will be held in the offices of the Board of County Commissioners in the courthouse.

Bids on the paving were opened by the commissioners last Monday. In the intervening week commissioners and city officials are attempting to come to some agreement on the type of material to be used in the paving. The final decision will be made at the meeting next Tuesday at which time property owners may express their opinions.

Pharmacist Offers Prescription for Joint Agony and Rheumatic Pain

At Trifling Cost

It was a studious pharmacist who saw prescription after prescription fail to help hundreds of his customers to get rid of rheumatic swellings and twingy inflamed joints.

And it was this same man who asserted that a remedy should be compounded that would bring comfort to swollen, inflamed, pain-tormented joints. Now this prescription, rightly named Joint-Ease after being tested on many cases, is offered through progressive pharmacists to the millions of people who suffer from ailing joints that need helpful attention.

Swollen, twingy, inflamed, pain tortured joints are usually caused by rheumatic trouble and Joint-Ease being a penetrating, pain subduing ointment when rubbed thoroughly into the skin helps to bring relief.

Remember, Joint-Ease is for ailments of the joints, whether in arms, hands, knee, hip, elbow, shoulder or finger and when you rub it on, you may expect gratifying results.

It is now on sale at druggists everywhere in America for 60 cents a tube.

Better give your feet a good rub with Joint-Ease if they burn and ache and are sore most of the time—you'll probably be joyfully surprised. You can always get Joint-Ease at Bradley's Drug Store.
